Synopsis of Facts:

SUMMARY REPORT

NRP originated in 1948 by JAMES H. MADOLE as a pro-German, anti-Semitic organization. MADOLE claims to have joined together members of the German American Bund, Citizens Protective League, and Christian Front in NYC and has attempted to organize neo-Nazi groups throughout the US. Party appears to have no officers except MADOLE who is party organizer and speaker. MADOLE alleged to be directed by FREDERICK WEISS, KURT WERTIG, GEORGE S. VIERECK, and [Redacted] Members and former members alleged to be pro-German, anti-Semitic radicals who have been prominent in other German organizations in NYC. Youths described as Communists have recently taken an active part in party meetings. Aims and objectives of party, as set out in the "National Renaissance Bulletin", official publication of the party, are to establish a white Christian America and promote the ideas of America first and racial nationalism which entails suppression of Communism and Zionism. The party program has been implemented by the distribution of "National Renaissance Bulletins" monthly, holding weekly public street meetings in NYC, and attempting to organize other nationalistic groups into a powerful political bloc for the advancement of these principles.

The National Renaissance Party will be referred to hereinafter as the NRP.

A. ORIGIN, SCOPE AND GENERAL ACTIVITIES OF THE NRP

Confidential Informant [] of known reliability, advised in July, 1953, that the NRP was originated in 1948 by JAMES H. MADOLE and has been functioning as such ever since. He said that MADOLE has maintained leadership of the party and that he is the motivating force in all of its activities. This informant said that MADOLE had formed a group called Youth for America while he was attending Beacon High School, at Beacon, New York in 1946, and that he carried over the ideas and organization of that group to form the NRP. Informant stated that he believes the NRP is restricted to the New York area, although he says that efforts have been made to organize other groups from time to time in such cities as Atlanta, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Dayton, Louisville and Chicago. He said that this fact had been publicized in past issues of the party publication, the "National Renaissance Bulletin".

[] stated that MADOLE has gathered a group of pro-German, anti-Semitic radicals into this party, some of whom have been active for years in other pro-German organizations in the Yorkville Section of New York City. He further stated that although the party literature carries the address 224 East Main Street, Beacon, New York, which is the residence of MADOLE and his mother, that there actually is no party headquarters, and that they rent various places in Yorkville for their meetings or hold them on street corners.

[] concluded that although it appears that the NRP is solely a New York City organization being used to spread pro-German, anti-Semitic propaganda, it is his belief that the NRP could be part of a large world-wide plan to discredit the present German government and hinder the United States State Department in its plans for unification of Western Europe.

Confidential Informant [] of unknown reliability, advised in April, 1953, that he did not know when the NRP came into existence nor did he know anything of the facts surrounding the origin of the party. He did state, however, that while the NRP is ostensibly nationalistic in scope, the only activity of the organization is centered in the state of New York. He stated the NRP has its headquarters in New York City, is a loosely formed group, is opposed to Communism, the present government of Western Germany, the present United States government, and is anti-Semitic and pro-Nazi.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Concerning the actual headquarters of the NRP, [] stated he believed the group used a private hall at 159 East 86th Street, New York City, for all meetings and rallies of a public and semi-public nature. Concerning other possible headquarters, [] stated it was his understanding that the NRP had some sort of a permanent office at 224 East Main Street, Beacon, New York. [] stated he did not know the significance of the NRP office in Beacon, New York, but believed it to be the headquarters for the printing and distribution of the NRP literature.

This informant revealed that in addition to the aforementioned addresses, the NRP also meets on a frequent basis at the Mt. Hope Farm, Middleborough, New York, which farm is owned by FREDERICK TEISS. The informant based his opinion that these meetings were being conducted at this farm on a frequent basis because such meetings have always been []

[] stated that most of the important business of the NRP is conducted at this farm by leaders of the group. He further stated that before any person, other than one of the leaders of the NRP, can attend any meetings held on the farm, the permission of FREDERICK TEISS has to be obtained.

According to [] the NRP hopes to increase its size and importance by drawing membership from college students.

[] stated that the NRP is opposed to the imprisonment of former Nazi leaders and is dedicated to working for their release. The informant stated the members of the NRP always excuse Germany and the Nazi Party of any blame for World War II. [] stated the members of the NRP believe that the alliance of the United States during World War II should have been with Germany and against the Soviet Union.

The "New York Compass" dated November 20, 1949, carried a story under the headline "He Wants to be Fuehrer", by HARRY HENDERSON, which sets out the origin of the NRP and background information on MADOLE. This story is set out in part as follows:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"This is a story of a young man who dreams of being America's Fuehrer, who is trying now to unite all the anti-Semitic, nationalist and racist groups in the East behind him. This is the story of how he lives, how he works, and how he got that way.

"Newspapers recently carried accounts of a swaggering, brown shirted JAMES H. MADOLE, leader of the Nazi-like National Renaissance Party, claiming before a Philadelphia audience that he helped organize the riots at the PAUL ROBESON Peekskill Concerts. He reportedly said, 'I was very proud to have had a part in organizing it. It was 3,000 veterans against 12,000 Jews and 3,000 veterans against 12,000 Jews is enough.'

"MADOLE assured me stiffly that he was the leader of the National Renaissance Party which he said stood for government by the 'intellectual elite'.

"When I brought up the Peekskill riots he seemed both frightened and proud. I said the papers had reported that he claimed in Philadelphia to have helped organize the riots, was that true? 'Well a few of our fellows (members of the National Renaissance Party) may have been there but I can't make any definite quote on that'.

"Later he gave me a different version of how he came to claim credit for the riot violence. He said it was all McFARLAND'S fault, meaning WILLIAM H. McFARLAND, head of the fascist Nationalist Action League of Philadelphia, and whom MADOLE recently made Pennsylvania director of his National Renaissance Party.

"MADOLE says his NRP is derived from 'animism', a philosophy he developed himself which is based on 'values of individual personality, private enterprise, and government by the intellectual elite.' He attacks democracy as 'rule by the ignorant mass' and rejects the 'liberal democratic line' which he calls 'the general idea of breaking down all forms of racial pride and the general idea of mongrelization of the races.'

Confidential Informant [] advised in April, 1953 that the NRP has no officers as such, but that from his observations during 1952 and 1953, he believes the following were acting as leaders and advisors of this group:

JAMES MADOLE
GEORGE SYLVESTER ~~VIERECK~~

Confidential Informant [] of unknown reliability, advised in October, 1949 that he had attended a meeting of the NRP on [] and that he believed them to be a fascist group whose officers were JAMES MADOLE, director; []

JAMES H. MADOLE
224 East Main Street
Beacon, New York

b2
b7D

[] stated in July, 1953 that MADOLE had been the leader of the NRP throughout its existence and that it was his personal zeal and continued work that had kept it in existence. He said that MADOLE had been very sickly as a child, having an asthmatic condition and was raised by his mother as his father had died while he was quite young. He said that MADOLE probably had a fixation on his mother and that his political activities had been encouraged and directed by his mother since the time that MADOLE was in high school.

"He believes animism would create a scientific society ruled by the best scientific minds and no layman can vote on a scientist. On a more practical, immediate level he is for private enterprise, the open shop, reindustrialization of Germany and Japan, friendship with Spain.

✓ "Every few weeks he holds street corner rallies in Christian Front neighborhoods in the Bronx and Yorkville. Twice banned by the police, he claims the ban was lifted by intercession of a Congressman friend. He tries to appeal to veterans, although he is not one himself. He claims 145 members in the Bronx. ✓ In Yorkville he has picked up some of the old German-American Bund membership through the cooperation of KURT MERTIG, head of the pro-Nazi Citizens Protective League. In Queens he has acquired the remnants of the Christian Front through [redacted] In Philadelphia, he claims 300 members, former followers of the fascist Nationalist Action League. He also claims members in the deep South, particularly in Atlanta. b7C

"MADOLE uses the U. S. mails to distribute anti-Semitic and nationalist tracts, bundles of which he receives from various nationalists for resale. Some of the material he imports from Sweden and other foreign powers."

It is to be noted that the German-American Bund, Citizens Protective League and the Nationalist Action League, mentioned in the above article, have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

B. INDIVIDUALS CONNECTED WITH THE NRP

1. Individuals Who Control The NRP

Confidential Informant [redacted] previously mentioned, in July, 1953, stated that there never has been any set up of officers for the NRP but that MADOLE has appeared to be in complete control during the party's activities. He said that from time to time MADOLE has allied himself with other persons whose advice he accepted and who may have had various titles, but there have been very frequent changes among these advisors as disagreements arose over the party's policies.

b2

b7D

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[] said that MADOLE has appeared at all the meetings which have ever been held by the NRP as its principal speaker, and whereas others have come in from time to time as speakers, he always appeared to be in complete charge of the meetings. This informant also pointed out that all literature distributed by the NRP carries MADOLE'S name and home address and many of the articles in the "National Renaissance Bulletin" are attributed to him. This informant said that MADOLE appears to be a rabid fascist who imagines himself to be a fuhrer. He stated that MADOLE has expressed a bitter hatred of the Jewish race and that this hatred has carried over into becoming one of the primary tenets of the party. He said that MADOLE has never worked very long at any job but has spent most of his time working for the party and is probably supported by his mother.

[] stated that he knew very little concerning MADOLE other than he was allegedly head of the NRP in Peacon, New York. He said that during his brief acquaintance with MADOLE he came to know him as a fanatic believer in Nazism, evidenced by his conversations concerning Nazi Germany and the Nazi Party. [] stated that he could not recall, however, any specific statement made by MADOLE indicating his adherence to the Nazi form of government.

b2

Confidential Informant [] of unknown reliability, stated in July, 1953 that MADOLE was a very radical fascist who believed that HITLER was the greatest man who ever lived. He said that MADOLE was also violently anti-Semitic and expressed the idea that all Jews in the United States should be killed.

b2
b7D

FREDERICK CHARLES FERDINAND WEISS
156 Grand Street
White Plains, New York
and
Weiss Farm, Mt. Hope, New York

In April of 1953, [] advised that WEISS is the owner of the LeBlanc Publishers, Incorporated, Box 155, 208 East 86th Street, New York City, and that through this business he writes and distributes anti-Semitic, pro-German literature. [] further advised that WEISS is the guiding influence behind the pro-German, neo-Nazi organizations in the United States, although he holds no office in any of these organizations other than that of executive secretary of the American Committee for the Advancement of Western Culture, which [] described as a recently formed group [] of a pro-German, neo-Nazi character.

b2
b7C
b7D

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[] advised that a reliable source had told him that WEISS made the statement that he, WEISS, had paid for the meeting hall for the NRP meeting on February 21, 1953, and also paid for the NRP literature and the publication of the "National Renaissance Bulletin". [] stated that inasmuch as WEISS is an alien he is afraid of being deported if he appears to be active in fascist-Nazi movements, therefore, WEISS has remained in the background and controls the leaders of the various neo-Nazi organizations.

b2

[] advised further that WEISS has been advisor to [] and JAMES MADOLE, whom [] terms as leaders of the alleged neo-Nazi groups in the United States.

b2
b7C
b7D

[] stated that WEISS also writes and publishes articles supporting the neo-Nazi movement in the United States and that he recently has been in correspondence with Germans in Argentina and Germany. [] stated that until about December, 1952, WEISS' writings were pro neo-Nazi, anti-Semitic and anti-Communist. [] further related that since that time he has noticed that WEISS has toned down his anti-Communist writings.

b2
b7D

[] stated that WEISS had said to a reliable source known to [] that on January 3, 1953 WEISS had met with two men whom WEISS termed as "Russkys". Further that WEISS had stated to this source that one of these "Russkys" had propositioned WEISS, stating that WEISS could make plenty of money with the "Russkys".

b2
b7D

[] further advised that about February 26, 1953 WEISS had stated that he had shown these "Russkys" that he could produce if and when they came across and that WEISS had stated that the "Russkys" had offered him $1500 a few weeks before but that they would have to give him at least $50,000 and that he would not put his neck in a noose for less.

b2

[] stated that it was his opinion from the above that WEISS meant that the "Russkys" wanted WEISS to continue writing propaganda in the United States against the re-arming of Western Germany, but that he does not know exactly what WEISS has to do for this money. The informant pointed out that the "Russkys" could be either White Russians or Communists, but that he could furnish no information regarding the identity or background of these "Russkys".

b2
b7D

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[] advised that on the morning of April 13, 1953, WEISS had stated that he intended to urge [] JAMES MADOLE and others allied with German organizations, to picket KONRAD ADENAUER while the latter was in New York City. [] stated that subsequently on that same day, WEISS had changed his mind and informed the above persons that he advocated no picketing of ADENAUER while the latter was visiting the United States. [] related that the other leaders thereupon agreed with WEISS that no neo-Nazi groups in the New York area would demonstrate against the ADENAUER visit.

b2
b7C
b7D

[] advised in April, 1953 that WEISS is a writer of political science whose works were favorable to Germany under the Nazi rule. He stated that WEISS has a home at 156 Grand Street, White Plains, New York but usually resides at the Mt. Hope Farm, which is near Middleborough, New York. [] stated that WEISS uses this farm as a meeting place for such members of the NRP as [] GEORGE VIERECK, [] and [] This h.g. informant said that WEISS is extremely cautious regarding outsiders and usually remains in the background of NRP meetings.

b2
b7C
b7D

[] stated that during the summer of 1952 [] had referred to WEISS as the "in-between man" between the NRP and the "real people". [] stated that he did not know what [] meant by the "real people" but believes that from subsequent conversations [] was referring to certain missing Nazi leaders allegedly hiding in South America.

b2
b7C
b7D

The informant stated that WEISS openly boasted that he was one of the instigators of the riot which occurred in Peekskill, New York during the appearance of PAUL ROBESON. Informant said he had no knowledge of the truth or falsity of this statement other than WEISS' own admission.

[] said that WEISS had often boasted that he had sources of information in political groups and law enforcement agencies in the United States but that he did not elaborate on this statement or identify any of his sources of information.

b7D

[] described WEISS as pro-Nazi in that he excuses the Nazis for any blame in World War II and because he desires release of all Nazi war criminals. [] stated he recalled that [] mentioned during 1952 that WEISS used a mail drop to conduct NRP business but the informant was unable to amplify this statement. [] described WEISS as an alien in his sixties and an ex-Captain in the Germany artillery during World War I.

b2 [] stated that EISS has large holdings in real estate b7C and apartment houses in the New York City area. He further said that [] b7D and [] had said during 1952 that EISS donated a considerable amount of money to the NRP from money obtained through these holdings.

GEORGE SYLVESTER VIERECK
Hotel Belleclaire
New York City

b2 Confidential Informant [] advised that GEORGE S. VIERECK b7C is a senile old man who has been active in the past in pro-German activities b7D in the United States and that he formerly was an agent for the German government during World War I and World War II. The informant said that VIERECK is active at the present time in counselling the younger organizers of the fascist groups, such as JAMES MADOLE, [] and [].
This informant said that VIERECK frequently has meeting at his hotel which are attended by members of the pro-German organizations in New York City.
He said that MADOLE has sought advice from VIERECK on many occasions and that because of VIERECK'S reputation and experience, MADOLE is inclined to do most anything that VIERECK advises.

It is to be noted that GEORGE SYLVESTER VIERECK was a defendant charged with sedition and tried in the United States District Court, District of Columbia, but this action was dismissed in June of 1947. VIERECK was convicted in Federal Court, District of Columbia in 1942 for violating the 1938 Foreign Registration Act and was sentenced to serve from two to six years in the Federal Penitentiary and was fined $500 on each of three counts. This conviction was reversed by the Supreme Court of the United States on March 1, 1943 and VIERECK was later re-indicted. At the second trial he was convicted June 16, 1943, receiving a sentence of from two to ten months on each of six counts, sentence to run consecutively. VIERECK entered Atlanta Prison on October 13, 1943 to serve a term of 60 months.

b2 [] stated that VIERECK is employed as a writer and b7D described VIERECK as a pro-Nazi who previously served a sentence in the Federal Penitentiary for subversive activity on behalf of the Nazis. He said that VIERECK had been present at several meetings held during 1952 at EISS' farm in Middleborough, New York, where other leaders of the NRP were present.
[] stated that VIERECK, like EISS, usually remains in the background and is not openly known as a member of the NRP.

[] said that EISS was interested in placing VIERECK in the Stuben Society of Chicago during 1952. The informant said that EISS intended using [] to place VIERECK within that group but was unsuccessful because VIERECK refused to become a member. [] said that EISS' purpose in placing VIERECK in this group was to use him to guide the Stuben Society toward the aims and objectives of the NRP.

b2

b7C

b7D

KURT MERTIG
317 East 54th Street
New York City

[] stated that MERTIG is a pro-German radical who has been active in German organizations for the past fifteen years. He said that MERTIG had been active in the NRP several years ago but that illness had forced him to cease his activities. He stated, however, that in July, 1953 MERTIG had again appeared at NRP meetings and was a speaker at one street meeting on July 10, 1953. He said that MERTIG had been sent to Rykers Island, New York for six months on February 28, 1946 for inciting to riots and unlawful assembly in connection with his pro-German, anti-Semitic activities.

~~C. STATED AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE NRP~~

b2
b7D

Confidential Informant [] of known reliability, on August 22, 1949, provided a pamphlet entitled "Program of the National Renaissance Party" in which the purpose and aims of the party were stated as follows:

Aims:

1. Nationalization of our people through an educational campaign among college, church and labor groups.
2. Termination of political bureaucracy and establishment of rule by the intellectual elite.
3. Private enterprise and equality of opportunity for the ambitious.
4. Repeal of all bureaucratic red tape involving private enterprise and industrial evolution through monopoly.
5. Vast rearmament program for defense; atomic energy to be governed by the military.
6. Ten year reconstruction project for complete slum clearance.
7. Right to work in "open shops" free of labor czar tyranny.
8. To free politics and culture from domination by racial minorities.
9. Acceptance and reindustrialization of Germany and Japan as allies in the western coalition against Communism.
10. To cease squandering American wealth and resources abroad while many Americans remain poorly housed, clothed and fed.
11. Free college education for all American youth.
12. To create a united national community wherein workers and management can work, hand in hand, toward our great national destiny envisioned by the founders of our American Republic.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

13. To replace cowardice and the glorification of weakness with a national community based on courage, strength and loyalty.

This pamphlet also sets forth the program of the party as follows:

The National Renaissance Party is devoted to a renaissance of American culture and a resurrection of the American people. The philosophic doctrine of our party is known as Animism - a socio-political doctrine based on ALEXANDER HAMILTON'S concept of an American Republic dominated and governed by the best minds of the nation or the intellectual elite. The present inroads of Communist theory in America are due solely to the false concept of democracy, which has permitted racial minority pressure groups to force their will on the political rabble in Washington. To maintain a job a politician must have votes and since the racial minority groups, who foster Communism in all nations, vote in a unified bloc, they can buy the votes of our parliamentarians in Congress and State Legislatures.

It is utterly useless to look for last minute aid from the divided social clubs and discussion groups of the conservative Republican party. These dignified, elderly gentlemen have left the field, sadly disillusioned after our last election which they hoped to win by the use of old line political hacks against the crusading fanaticism of a militant social philosophy, Communism. Tens of thousands of the American youth were won over to Marxism and the program of New Deal Socialism through lack of a counter philosophic doctrine to augment their faith in their nation and race. Rest assured that flag waving, Sunday school lectures and political wind bags, whose capacity for downright lying is seldom excelled, will never set the American soul aflame with crusading fanaticism and love of America, only a new doctrine will suffice.

 also furnished a pamphlet entitled "The Race Question and the Tolerance Racket" which was published by the NRP, 224 East Main Street, Beacon, New York, in which it was stated that "the NRP stands for a new freedom, the freedom from interference in the affairs of sovereign states by conniving revolutionary elements of this racial minority which, while condemning HITLER for annexing Austria and the Sudetenland which was predominantly dominated by Germans, itself seized lands belonging to the Arab states. In this case of outright aggression, the Israelite aggressors were championed by the New Deal leader, which their funds and power had placed in office."

The "National Renaissance Bulletin" dated June, 1949 carried under a sub-heading "Official Organ of the NRP Devoted to Animism, a Philosophy Based on Values of Individual Personality, Private Enterprise and Government by the Intellectual Elite".

The "National Renaissance Bulletin" dated January, 1949 under the caption "What We Stand For", listed the following:

The NRP has been created for the following purposes:

1. To organize a voting bloc of American citizens of Finnish, German, Latvian, Estonian, Lithuanian, White Russian and Latin extraction to oppose the flood of Marxist ideologies in America and to act as a counterweight to the racial minority voting blocs.
2. The erection of the NRP as a political force in its own right, to wrest control of America from cowardly middleclass parties who have become instruments for electing candidates satisfactory to the minority races but hostile to the interests of the great mass of the American people.
3. To organize the power of American industrial interests in a campaign to educate the great mass of American people, in particular the workers and win them back to their race and nation through the medium of a vast educational campaign to be launched by the NRP.
4. To expose the truth behind World War II by making known the insidious chicanery of the new deal regime in driving this country into war on behalf of the minority races, who had driven the nations of Central Europe into a state of religious fury against the slow moral poisoning of the people. We are experiencing the same sensations in America at present resulting in vicious sex crimes, sex orgies between negroes and teen-age white girls in Minnesota and the rising tide of pornography and sexual degeneracy as depicted in our literature, films, art and music.

The "National Renaissance Bulletin" of January, 1952 stated the NRP was organized in 1949 to combat both Communism and Internationalism. It stated that the party believes in the principles of America first and racial nationalism, and that their bulletin reached 12,000 people per month.

The "National Renaissance Bulletin" dated April, 1953 set out in sub-heading "Official organ of the National Renaissance Party devoted to a restoration of the American Republic, the preservation of American sovereignty and the establishment of an American regime based on the principles of racial nationalism and social justice."

The "National Renaissance Bulletin" dated May, 1953, set out in sub-heading "Although ADOLF HITLER is dead, his philosophy lives again in the growing struggle of Fascist forces in America, Europe and the Middle East. What HITLER accomplished in Europe, the NRP shall yet accomplish in America".

b7D

[] also furnished a booklet issued by the Democratic Nationalist Party of the United States of North America, which he obtained from [] in April, 1953. This booklet sets forth the following aims of the Democratic Nationalist Party, which this informant stated was the predecessor of the NRP:

1. To promote the cause of Democratic Nationalism in our folkland, the United States of North America.
2. To increase the sense of social, economic, political and racial responsibility in our white folk who are members of our folk community.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

3. To advance the spirit of friendship and good fellowship in our folk community.

4. To safeguard our white folk from all alien enemies within our folkland through orderly and regular participation in local state and national politics.

The June, 1953 "National Renaissance Bulletin" carried the following article:

"We are asking all our members and supporters to please contribute whatever sum they are able to aid in the tremendous struggle in which the NRP is engaged. Every dollar you give acts as a front line soldier in the monumental struggle against the Jewish exploiters of Aryan mankind. Our party banner will yet fly over the White House in Washington once the American people have united against the political parasites of the Democratic and Republican parties and their Jewish taskmasters."

b2

☐ advised that JAMES M'DOLE had made the following statements at public meetings of the NRP:

On February 21, 1953 M'DOLE said that just as sure as I am standing before you I will plant the swastika in Washington one day. I will solve the Jewish problem once and for all. I will finish the job that HITLER started. M'DOLE described EISENHOWER as IKE the kike, that bloody butcher whose hands are red with the blood of German women and children. He said that if they tried to lead us into World War III we will take the arms they give us but instead of shooting at the Russians we will teach the youth of our country to turn the weapons against the Jews and that will solve the problem once and for all.

On May, 15, 1953, according to the informant, M'DOLE said we stand for white Christian America. TRUMAN should be killed and everyone who embraces Communism should be killed immediately.

On July 10, 1953, M'DOLE also reported to have said that there is no room for Christianity and Democracy today. Fascism is the only way out as only Fascism has contained Communism and will conquer. We are Fascists and proud of being Fascists.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On July 24, 1953, MADOLE stated that TRUMAN was a greater traitor than the ROSENBERGS and he deserves to get the chair. He said that EISENHOWER is the same breed and gang as TRUMAN and FOR.

On July 31, 1953, MADOLE stated that TRUMAN was a traitor and should have been shot and that the Washington politicians are selling us out and that the Jews control the United States government, the press, radio and cinema.

D. ACTION TAKEN TO IMPLEMENT THE PROGRAM OF THE NRP

1. Publications

b2 [] stated in July, 1953 that the "National Renaissance b7D Bulletin" was the official publication of the NRP and that it has been issued more or less on a monthly basis for the past four years. He said that this pamphlet usually contains several articles by members of the party which adhere to the party line of pro-Nationalism and anti-Semitism. He said that EISS usually arranged for the money for the publication and advised MADOLE as to what articles should be included. He said that EISS frequently had articles of his own in this paper under many aliases and that MADOLE has written a great deal of the material contained in them.

The informant stated that copies of this publication are passed out to the people who attend the NRP street meetings and mailed to individuals who have subscribed to it. The stated price of this bulletin as contained therein is $2.00 for twelve issues. He stated that these bulletins have also been mailed to persons whom it was believed might be sympathetic to the NRP principles. He said that mailing lists for this publication were probably obtained from other pro-German groups in New York City.

b2 [] in April, 1953 provided the April, July and October, b7D 1952 issues of the "National Renaissance Bulletin".

The April, 1952 issue contained an article by JOHN M. MUNDOFF entitled "Nazism vs. Communism", and an article by JAMES H. MADOLE entitled "The Eisenhower Fiasco in Germany".

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The article "Fascism vs. Communism" is an anti-Semitic article which states Democracy is unable to successfully combat Communism and only Fascism can eliminate Communism.

The "Eisenhower Wiasco in Germany" article is bitterly anti-Semitic and criticizes General D WIGHT D. EISENHOWER'S conduct in the occupation of Germany and blames him for what MADOLE describes as "the infamous war crime trials in Nuremberg".

The July, 1952 issue contains an article entitled "Exposing the Jewish War Criminals" by JAMES H. MADOLE, which is a bitter anti-Semitic article and excuses Nazi Germany's conduct toward Germans of Jewish faith.

In the October, 1952 issue there contained an article entitled "The Revolt Against Aryan Civilization" by JAMES H. MADOLE and an article entitled "Adolph Hitler: An Appreciation", by EUSTACE MULLENS. Both of these articles are of an anti-Semitic nature.

☐ provided a pamphlet entitled "DNP" issued in 1951 by the Democratic Nationalist Party of the United States of North America, which organization ☐ previously identified as being synonymous with the MRP. This booklet sets out the aims of the Democratic Nationalist Party which have previously been set forth in this report, and lists a twenty point program, which program is anti-Mon-Aryan and anti-Alion. This program also calls for close cooperation with Mexico and Central and South America.

b2

The "National Renaissance Bulletin" dated February, 1949 set out the following plan for an alliance of all Nationalist publications under the heading "National Renaissance Press Association":

"The National Renaissance Party, as one of the two existing Nationalist parties in the United States, is seeking to establish a greater degree of cooperation and joint effort among pro-Nationalist publications here and abroad. The success of the venture we are undertaking depends entirely on the willingness to cooperate of the editors of these publications. Since 1933 we have all been sadly lacking in that spirit of comradeship and common effort towards a common goal which has been responsible, not only for our failure to attain political victory but also our failures to prevent the repeated victories of the Marxists. For once let's bury the hatchet of petty jealousies and antagonism and work together. If each Nationalist editor will read this and then appoint himself as a self appointed committee of one to carry out his or her part of the bargain, we can stop complaining about our enemies and start rolling up political victories ourselves. Let's borrow a leaf from the Marxist book and learn how to work together for a Nationalist leader in the White House in 1952. We will all find this more valuable than harping on petty issues and back biting each other. The Red Press in New York has admitted time and again that the one thing it fears is Nationalist unity such as came in Germany under Hitler, Spain under Franco, etc.

"Now here is the plan. We are developing a National Renaissance Press Association, no dues whatsoever are required; just cooperation on the part of each editor, here and abroad. Here is what each editor taking part in this press association will be required to do:

"1. Once a month each editor will reserve a page for the National Renaissance Press Ass'n. On this page will be placed, the name of each publication, foreign and domestic, supporting the Press Association, the name of its editor the mailing address, and a review of the particular work carried on by each publication. By this means every publication participating will have a chance to greatly increase its circulation and the number of its subscribers. No matter how many or how few subscribers you have at present, each editor stands to gain by his cooperation. Furthermore, the Nationalists who read these publications will be given an expanded view of the nation-wide as well as the International Front on which the death struggle between Marxism and Nationalism is being waged.

"2. All editors participating in the National Renaissance Press Association will exchange their publications each month.

"3. All editors participating in the press association will, inasmuch as they are affiliated to no political party, support the National Renaissance Party in such national functions as taking up petitions for redresses of local, state or national grievances imposed by Red statesmen, advertising important mass meetings, etc. In fact, whenever we hear of Nationalist meetings anywhere we should all cooperate, to the best of our ability, to make them a success.

"Each editor cooperating in the National Renaissance Press Association will give space to our Nationalist allies who have publications functioning overseas,"

[] stated that the NRP has held public and private meetings since it first came into existence. He said that private meetings have been held in various rented halls in Yorkville, as well as at homes of the individual members. He further stated that the public meetings have been held on various street corners in the Yorkville section of New York under police permit. He stated that during these meetings the speakers urged the gathering to become members of the NRP and to donate money to its cause.

The "National Renaissance Bulletin" dated June, 1953 under the heading "National Renaissance Party Grows In Power" by JAMES H. MADOLE, stated the following:

"Despite ever increasing opposition from the Jewish Press and radio commentator, Barry Gray, the National Renaissance Party has gained ground steadily during the warm spring months of 1953. We cannot sufficiently thank our devoted supporters whose funds have made possible this crusade for racial nationalism and social justice.

"This month our movement, under the leadership of Mr. J. Mitchell, set up headquarters in Louisville, Kentucky. Our local headquarters is now situated at 2627 Hale Avenue, Louisville 1, Ky. Supporting our organizational efforts in this area is the new Nationalist newspaper, "The American Eagle," published by Mr. Millard Grubbs. You can obtain samples of this new Nationalist periodical by writing to: "The American Eagle," Box 1662, Louisville, Ky. All supporters in the Louisville area should contact Mr. Mitchell at once.

"Mass street meetings of the National Renaissance Party continue to take place every Friday evening at 8 P.M. on the southeast corner of 88th Street and York Avenue, N. Y. C. in the heavily populated Yorkville area of Central Manhattan. Large audiences pack the corner as our speakers deliver their messages for two hours and distribute free literature to the crowds. The Jewish opposition has sent every possible drunk and Communist hoodlum in the area to our meetings only to have them thrown out bodily. Newspaper reporters have been present at every meeting. Also present on many occasions were John Roy Carlson, author of such books as "Undercover" and "The Plotters," Rev. C. Leon Kirkhead, director of the anti-Nationalist, "Friends of Democracy," and James H. Sheldon of the Jewish gang known as the "Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League".

"James H. Sheldon (Shapiro) sent a telegram to Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. on behalf of his Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League as follows:

'The activities and announced purposes of the National Renaissance Party headed by James H. Madole, do not differ appreciably from those of the German-American Bund, the Citizens Protective League or the Nationalist Action League, all of which are now named as Fascist organizations in your Consolidated List of subversive agencies issued under Executive Order 9835. We respectfully urge that you take prompt action to add this organization to your officially announced list of subversive Fascist groups.'

"This telegram from Sheldon was printed by "the American Hebrew" on May 29, 1953 as part of a smear article entitled "Local Neo-Nazi Will Run For Congress In Yorkville". This article refers to H. Keith Thompson,

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

former registered agent for General Otto Reamer's Socialist Reich Party, who is planning to run for Congress in Yorkville on the National Renaissance Party ticket. Concerning Sheldon's telegram our party has already sent a registered letter to Attorney General Brownell concerning the background of the so-called 'Anti-Nazi League'. Among other things mentioned was the fact that the 'Anti-Nazi League' has clearly usurped the power of the Federal Government by establishing a private police force on American soil. In Atlanta, Georgia, this group bribed three young men to commit perjury during the frameup case against Homer Loomis and Emory Burke, leaders of Columbians Inc. Frigate bird an officer of this 'Anti-Nazi League', Richard Rollins (Rothenberg) broke into the private safe of Royal Scott Gulden, a New York real estate man, and stole two private files concerning the membership of 'The Order of 1776', a patriotic, anti-Communist group. The 'Anti-Nazi League' is financed by the Jew, Isadore Lipschutz, a foreign born diamond merchant who was refused American Citizenship until a few years ago on grounds of moral turpitude. Westbrook Pegler, the columnist for 'The New York Journal American', has written innumerable exposes on this private Gestapo.

"On June 26, 1953, we had as our guest speaker, Mr. James E. White, an organizer from Los Angeles, California, who addressed a crowd of 125 people at an open air mass meeting in Yorkville. He explained how the United Nations flag had been banned in Los Angeles and the traitorous U.N.E.S.C.O. program kicked out of California schools. Mr. White, has already organized a fully equipped uniformed group in his city and has distributed thousands of copies of the 'National Renaissance Bulletin'.

"Our own fully uniformed corps in New York City has been placed under the joint command of Matt Koehl Jr. and Hans Schmidt. A merit system has been devised on neatness, attendance and comprehension of the line-point program. This group includes men from all five boroughs of New York. Meetings of the uniformed corps are held in a private center every Thursday prior to our Friday night open air rallies."

"721-57th St.
Kenosha, Wis.
July 27, 1953

"Personal and Confidential - Please Destroy this letter
after reading.

"Mr. James H. Madole,

"Dear Mr. Madole:

"Thank you for your letter of July 23rd, and your acceptance of the idea to unite 40 million German Americans behind their courageous racial brothers in Europe, and as previously outlined.

"I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to come down to N. Y. and see you and Mr. Weiss (it was a letter I received from him some months ago, and several more since then, from him, that started me writing you), however, I feel it is going to be impossible at this time for me to make such trip.

"You state that in the absence of my doing so, you would meet me out here somewhere, and this is what it will have to be, I believe, and so I would like to ask if Milwaukee or Chicago would be suitable.

"Several points arise in my mind which will require our careful decision in the matter of bringing about the mass arising of 40 million German Americans, and that is, that it is going to require immense publicity, by that I mean we want our first rallies to get mention in the newspapers so it will be taken up thereafter like wild fire and sweep across the nation.

"Now if we do this in the name of the National Renaissance Party, then the newspapers will give it no publicity, because the NR party is known to be anti-Jewish and every regular newspaper in the country including even the Chicago Tribune, altho daily telling about the world Red crisis,

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

b7C

b7D

nevertheless [redacted] says that communism is a Jewish movement. The newspapers follow this hypocrisy, and are not patriotic enough to tell the real truth, thereby they let the internal enemy get away with its plot on the uninformed public, NY

"Our great problem, however, will be to get the 40 Million G-1's together into one organization, and to get the publicity to do so. Therefore it might be better, as you have stated, with an America First appeal, etc., and not connect the name of the NR party to it (altho it will have to be done by the individuals of the NR party) until we get the organization built. AFTER we get the 40 Million into one organization, we will be able to come out with all issues and fear nothing, they then will not be able to stop us. In other words, let us take the Unification and Freedom of Germany issue as the issue to unite the 40 Million German-Americans on, and to sweep the country with it. If we do not connect the NAME of the N. R. party with it, altho we will have to be the individuals doing it, (you folks) then they cannot refuse to put it in the papers, (because anti-Jewish or Fascist elements behind it as they would otherwise say).

"The U. S. administration says it is for the unification and freedom of Germany (altho they do not mean it) but they state they must unite Europe first, that is what they set up to give them an out, because they know they will never be able to unite Europe. But having given lip service to the unification of Germany idea, they cannot oppose the organization we will create of G-1 people to bring it about. At least, they cannot openly oppose, altho they will do all in their power under cover to prevent our success.

"I am very pleased to note that you have opened a Louisville, Ky branch as your June bulletin states. I note that you have in Los Angeles and N. Y. uniformed corps. This is good, I have long known that there is an element of power in the uniform, it will give strength and publicity to your organization, and growth.

"I would greatly appreciate your ideas as to point 8 of your program, what kind of a government you advocate as a "trained national-minded elite" and how it would be selected, continued, etc. If you could give me a few words on it, it would clear up questions not now clear to me. I find your letters very comprehensive and right to the point, realistic, and that is what it takes for success.

"So if you will let me know about meeting you in Chicago or Milwaukee after which we could set a date, I will be very appreciative.

"Thanking you, I am,

"Very Sincerely,

"L. Hansmann "/s/

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY

A political party devoted to the restoration of the American Republic, the preservation of American sovereignty and the establishment of an American regime based on the principles of racial nationalism and social justice.

New York Chairman
KURT MERTIG
317 E. 54th St., N.Y.C.

BASIC PROGRAM:

1. To encourage racial nationalism among the peoples of Europe, Africa and Asia as an antidote to the spread of international Communism.
2. To enforce a strict policy of racial segregation in America in order to preserve and advance the culturally dominant White Aryan Race which brought the cultural and social benefits of Western Civilization to our shores in 1492.
3. To bring about a gradual deportation of those racial elements which cannot be assimilated with the culturally predominant White Race. Laws must be passed to rigidly prohibit racial intermarriage.
4. The Jewish Race, which constitutes the motivating financial and intellectual force behind Communism, shall be deprived of their American Citizenship and hence barred from all political and professional posts. Marriage between Jews and members of the dominant White Race shall be forbidden.
5. To bring about the withdrawal of the United States from the United Nations in order to prevent the further exploitation of American resources and manpower by foreign parasites.
6. The alliance of German scientific and military genius combined with American technology, mass production technique and manpower could dominate both the American and European Continents. Therefore our foreign policy must have the threefold objective of realizing a German-American alliance in Europe; a Moslem-American alliance in the Middle East; and a Japanese-American alliance in Asia.
7. The creation of an American Corporate economy wherein labor and management will be equally represented in the Economic Dept. of the Federal Government. All disputes will be settled by impartial labor tribunals.
8. The abolition of parliamentary government and the substitution of government by a trained national-minded elite.
9. The use of all educational facilities to imbue the American youth with an intense feeling of racial and national pride as a sure antidote to the international poison of World Communism. Our national slogan shall be:
"One Race, One Nation, One Leader"

LS 105-104

[redacted] Census Bureau, Board of Education, Louisville, Kentucky, advised that [redacted]
born [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted]
advised that he had received literature of the National Renaissance Party from the [redacted] year old boy, who is currently [redacted]

[redacted] advised that [redacted] had intercepted a letter addressed to [redacted] from [redacted] [redacted] Louisville Headquarters of the National Renaissance Party, 2627 Hale Street, indicating that [redacted] had paid his membership fee and was to receive his membership card in the National Renaissance Party. [redacted] noted that the letterhead of the NRP carries the "basic program" of the organization, which outlines anti-Semitic, anti-Negro policy and states that one of the aims of the National Renaissance Party is "the abolition of parliamentary government and a substitution of government by a trained, national-minded elite."

"The National Renaissance Bulletin" of May, 1953, which was enclosed with the letter to [redacted] carries an article entitled "ADOLPH HITLER - The GEORGE WASHINGTON of Europe," which praises HITLER and the German Nazi Party and indicates that the NRP intends to accomplish in America what HITLER accomplished in Europe.

[redacted] indicated that in view of the fascist policies and vicious attitude expressed in the program of the NRP and in the "National Renaissance Bulletin," that he as [redacted] [redacted] believed it was his duty to take action in reference to [redacted]

[redacted] advised that he had also learned that [redacted] [redacted] years
of age and [redacted] having been an associate of [redacted] was involved in the NRP and that he would have to take similar action in regard to [redacted]

b7C On September 24, 1953, [] advised that [] b7D [] were in his office and that they wanted to talk to an FBI Agent.

b7C [] advised that he was the [] b7D [] of the National Renaissance Party. The membership of it consisted of himself, [] and one adult, MILLARD D. GRUBBS, 1427 South Sixth Street, Louisville, Kentucky.

[] KENTUCKY
[] stated that about one year ago in a magazine, the name of which he did not recall, he read an advertisement of the NRP which he answered. He stated that as a result of b7C correspondence with JAMES H. MADOLE, National Director of the b7D NRP, he became "the [] of this organization.
He stated that insofar as he knows MADOLE does not know his age inasmuch as he has only told MADOLE that he is a "student."

[] stated that he had been the []
[] of NRP only for about two or three months and has recruited only [] and GRUBBS.
He stated that he read about MILLARD GRUBBS in a newspaper b7C article appearing in the "Courier-Journal," Louisville, Kentucky, b7D a newspaper of general circulation, which article labeled "The American Eagle," a newspaper published by GRUBBS, as "an anti-Semitic, anti-Negro hate sheet." As a result of reading this article [] stated he went to see GRUBBS and asked him to join the NRP, which he did.

[] stated that the only literature he had received from the National Renaissance Party consisted of two or three issues of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" and a supply of stationery bearing the letterhead and program of the b7C NRP. This stationery also bears [] name and address b7D as the [] of NRP, according to []
He stated he purchased 1,000 sheets of this stationery from the National Headquarters of NRP.

[] stated that the only officers of whom he b7C knew were JAMES H. MADOLE, the National Director, and KURT b7D MERTIG, New York Chairman. It is to be noted that these names appear on the stationery of NRP.

LS 105-104

b7C [] stated that membership fee was $1, and b7D there are no dues or membership standards insofar as he knows.

b7C [] stated that he understood the aims of the b7D NRP to be anti-Negro and anti-Communist. He indicated that he fully understood that the aims of the NRP having to do with the abolition of parliamentary government and the substitution of a government "by a trained national-minded elite" indicated that the NRP planned on establishing a totalitarian dictatorship. [] indicated he understood that the program of the NRP called for a "strong foreign policy" and would involve a discontinuance of aid to foreign Governments.

b7C [] indicated that he agreed with the aims of b7D the National Renaissance Party, and stated it was a legal organization and had not been declared subversive. He said there was no law prohibiting his membership in such an organization.

b7C [] was questioned by [] as to the b7D nature of GRUBBS' association with the NRP in Louisville. He maintained that GRUBBS was only a member and that he had solicited GRUBBS' membership.

b7C [] advised [] that he had never shown any b7D of the literature which he received to his parents, and that his parents knew nothing about the NRP or his association with it.

b7C [] advised that []
b7D []

b7C [] advised that so far as he knew the b7D only members of the NRP were [] and himself. [] stated that in his opinion the NRP was militaristic, fascist, anti-Communist, anti-Negro, and anti-Semitic, and that he agreed with that program. He indicated that he did not like Negroes, did not like JEWS, and did not like Communism. He stated that he did not think there were more than one million people in this country who were intelligent enough to vote and that these people should run the government. He indicated that he understood that the NRP intended to establish a dictatorship and that he believed that to be the most efficient form of government. [redacted] indicated that he did not believe the NRP to be illegal in any way and felt that he had a perfect right to belong to such a party.

KENTIN-124

[redacted] advised that he had become a member of the NRP after having been asked to join by [redacted] but that after he had received a letter from [redacted] on the stationery of the NRP, which outlined the program of the NRP, he decided he did not want to belong to the organization. He indicated that while he did not like Jews and Negroes, he felt that the program of the NRP was practically the same as the Communist Party insofar as the practical application was concerned. He stated that he had written a letter to [redacted] indicating that he was withdrawing.

[redacted] said he knew of no other NRP members in [redacted] other than those previously named. He stated he had had no contact with MILLARD GRUBBS.

[redacted] indicated that at the time he wrote his letter withdrawing from the NRP, he had discussed the matter with [redacted] but he had made up his mind prior to that discussion.

[redacted]
[redacted] was interviewed at his request. He furnished copies of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" for January, May, and July, 1953, and an envelope and letter from the national headquarters of the NRP to [redacted] dated September 21, 1953, which enclosed a party membership card and the above issues of the "National Renaissance Bulletin." He also furnished a two-page letter to [redacted] dated September 21, 1953, from [redacted] on the letterhead of the NRP. In this letter [redacted] requests [redacted] to explain his withdrawal from the NRP; that the NRP program is not the same as the Communist Party; that [redacted] cowardice is causing his withdrawal; and urges him to reconsider. He states that the NRP Guard will be formed in the near future and that it is hoped [redacted] will join "these storm troops."

On September 29, 1953, [redacted]

[redacted] was interviewed at his request. He indicated that [redacted] had been in contact with him and that as a result he had searched [redacted] room, finding correspondence which he exhibited. In addition to copies of letters to [redacted] and [redacted] there was a copy of a letter from [redacted] to [redacted]

b7C

b7D

[redacted] This letter, dated June 8, 1953, indicates that [redacted] contacted MILLARD GRUBBS at the suggestion of [redacted] advised that GRUBBS contacts [redacted] occasionally and that he has considered it very peculiar that a man of GRUBBS' age would be interested in a teenage boy. He indicated that he knows nothing about the National Renaissance Party or GRUBBS, but that he intends to stop the activity on the part of [redacted] and intends to stop GRUBBS from contacting [redacted]

[redacted] furnished a list of names which he had copied from a notebook in [redacted] room. One group of four names is headed "Gray Guard" and contains the names and addresses of: [redacted]

b7C

b7D

[redacted] explained that [redacted] is a friend of [redacted] a former neighbor boy.

Another group of names contains the names of several prominent attorneys and businessmen in Louisville, Kentucky.

A third group consists of names and addresses of individuals at various locations in the United States.

In the previously mentioned letter from [redacted] to the Committee for the Advancement of Western Culture, [redacted] indicated that MILLARD GRUBBS had furnished him a list of names.

b7C

b7D

[redacted] indicated that the last two groups appeared to him to be the lists of names [redacted] had obtained from GRUBBS.

b7C

b7D

In a news item appearing in the Courier-Journal, Louisville, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation, on

LS 105-104

August 13, 1946, DANIEL DUKE, then Attorney General, State of Georgia, reportedly named the Continental League for Christian Freedom, headed by MILLARD GRUBBS, 1427 South Sixth Street, as the Kentucky branch of the Ku-Klux Klan. GRUBBS was quoted in the article as denying any Ku-Klux Klan connection.

GRUBBS on March 14, 1947, was interviewed by Bureau Agents and denied any Ku-Klux Klan connections. He stated that the Continental League for Christian Freedom is not incorporated or chartered, has no officers, no formal membership, and no dues. Its membership consists, he said, of people who "feel the same way I do about things." GRUBBS characterized his organization as anti-New Deal and anti-Communist. In answer to a question as to whether or not the organization was anti-Semitic, he stated that he did not condemn any man because of his race, color, or religion but that he did think that some Jewish financiers had obtained too much power, mentioning specifically HENRY MORGANTHAU and BERNARD BARUCH. He stated that "all Jews are Communists." He indicated that he had opposed the appointment of DAVID LILIENTHAL as head of the Atomic Energy Commission, not because he was a Jew but because of his "Communist leanings." He stated that Justices FELIX FRANKFURTER and ROBERT JACKSON of the United States Supreme Court were Communists.

b7C GRUBBS indicated he was an admirer of the late HERMAN TALMAGE, former Governor of Georgia, outspoken in his reviews regarding racial questions, and exhibited a letter from [redacted] who at the time of the interview was a [redacted]. The letter thanked GRUBBS for a congratulatory note.

At the time of the interview GRUBBS claimed for his organization a national membership of 65,000 to 75,000 and a Louisville, Kentucky, membership of 2,000. He stated that at the time of the interview he was fifty-seven years old, had lived in Louisville since 1930, and derived his income from real estate which he owns.

b7C [redacted] Louisville Police Department, in 1947 advised that MILLARD GRUBBS was a disbarred attorney, appeared to be disgruntled, a crank, and had in the past circulated derogatory statements concerning various prominent people and public officials.

b7C SA [redacted] Enclosed herewith are nine copies of the report of dated 11/17/53 at NY in captioned matter.

Principal activity of subject organization in the past has been the holding of outdoor public street meetings and the distribution of the National Renaissance Bulletin. Inasmuch as informants have indicated that these street meetings are no longer being held and that the printing of the Bulletin appears to be indefinitely suspended, it is felt that activities of subject organization will be decreased. Therefore, the NYO will place this investigation in a pending inactive status. Quarterly reports on the activities of this organization will be hereafter submitted UACB.

It is pointed out for the information of the Bureau that [redacted] indicated that [redacted]

b2 [redacted] told him
b7C that he planned to compile material of a Fascist nature and b7D will submit it to the appropriate Senate committees and the Justice Department. It is further pointed out that this [redacted] is apparently the same person identified in the enclosed report as [redacted] who has been supporting the Communists who have infiltrated subject organization.

| TITLE NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY | | | CHARACTER OF CASE INTERNAL SECURITY - X |
| SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: CIs indicate National Renaissance Party held public street meetings in Yorkville throughout the summer of 1953, at which JAMES MADOLE and other speakers made anti-Semitic, pro-Fascist statements, and literature was distributed. No meetings are being held at the present time due to difficulties in obtaining a meeting hall and no National Renaissance Bulletin has been issued since August 1953 due to publishing difficulties. The National Renaissance Party has discontinued contact with HANSMANN of Kenosha, Wisconsin, and there is no further indication of contacts with persons outside NYC. Informant states FREDERICK WEISS formerly associated with one FRANCIS PARKER YOCKEY who may have directed the pro-Soviet attitude in WEISS' writings. Informants state alleged members of CP, USA, have taken over a great deal of the National Renaissance Party's work. A. ORIGIN, SCOPE, AND GENERAL ACTIVITIES OF THE NRP

b2 [] of known reliability, stated that during the b7D summer of 1953 the NRP held public street meetings at various street corners in the Yorkville Section of New York City. He said that these meetings were held on Friday evenings and were conducted by the NRP's leader, JAMES MADOLE. He stated that at these meetings MADOLE and other speakers who varied from week to week made anti-Semitic, pro-Fascist statements and that the party literature was distributed. He said the last public outdoor meeting was held on October 16, 1953, and that since that time the party has been attempting to find an indoor meeting hall but so far has not been successful.

This informant further indicated that FREDERICK WEISS, who is the real power behind the NRP, has recently indicated to MADOLE that he must get a new printer for his publications. The informant said that WEISS no longer wanted or would permit MADOLE to use []

The informant further stated that WEISS and MADOLE were no longer in contact with LOUIS HANSMANN, who, the informant stated, was a person in Kenosha, Wisconsin, who was alleged to represent a wealthy group interested in furthering national socialism. He said that MADOLE had gone to Chicago in August and had conferred with HANSMANN regarding a proposed tour through the Midwest which HANSMANN would finance.

The informant stated that upon MADOLE'S return from that meeting it was apparent that HANSMANN had not been impressed by MADOLE and was no longer interested in utilizing him in this proposed tour. The informant said that soon thereafter WEISS had received a letter from HANSMANN stating that he was going to Canada and that WEISS should destroy all correspondence received from him and forget that he had ever been in contact with WEISS or MADOLE regarding these matters. The informant stated that so far as he knows, there has been no further contact with HANSMANN and he believes that his group is no longer interested in the NRP.

The informant added that he had no indication that the NRP was contacting any other groups in the United States or that it had any membership in the United States or that it had any membership outside of New York City.

b7C This informant stated that within recent months
b7D the complexion of the NRP had changed in that several new leaders had arisen and were taking a very active part in all of the party's activities. He stated that [redacted] and [redacted] whom he understood to be Communist Party members, had recently joined the NRP and now were in positions of leadership.

The informant further stated that it was his belief and he had heard rumors that these two persons were in the employment of one [redacted] who is [redacted]

b7C [redacted] He stated
b7D he knew nothing further concerning the reasons for this or what [redacted] connection with the NRP was. He did state that within the past few weeks [redacted] according to the Newark Observer, had given a speech before a Jewish women's group in New Jersey at which he stated the NRP had a membership of 7,000 in New York and a large membership throughout the country and that it was a great menace to the security of the country.

b2 [redacted] of unknown reliability, but who has attended b7D meetings of the subject organization and is acquainted with its leaders, gave the following information concerning this group:

NY 105-6112

He stated that the NRP had been holding street meetings for the past few months in Yorkville and the general tenor of its activities is anti-Semitic and pro-Fascist. He said that whereas formerly the NRP had been controlled by JAMES MADOLE and had been regarded as a purely Fascist-type organization, that within recent months a new element appeared to be rising to exert control over the party's activities. He stated the first indication of this was in December 1952 when FREDERICK WEISS, who does a great deal of the writing for the New Renaissance Bulletin and whom the informant described as the hub of neo-Nazi activity in the United States and the hidden power behind the NRP, began to definitely soft pedal his anti-Communist writings.

This informant stated that he believed WEISS was in contact with certain Russians about this time and may have accepted money from them in connection with his writings. He said, however, he did not know anything specific about these contacts but that WEISS had told him of them. The informant said he did believe that some of WEISS' writings had been composed by a man named FRANCIS PARKER YOCKEY and that these writings seemed to favor the Soviet viewpoint to some extent although they did not come out in favor of Communism as such.

The informant stated that YOCKEY is the type of person who would take support from anyone including the Communists in the belief that any support that might advance the cause of national socialism should be accepted. The informant said that YOCKEY presently is in Europe, but he believes that YOCKEY continues to send articles to WEISS which are published under WEISS' name.

This informant also stated that one [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] had indicated to him that he also had been cognizant of a pro-Russian attitude in the activities of the NRP and that he believed that this was emanating from YOCKEY, whom he said holds the extraordinary view that it would be better for Europe to be dominated by Russia rather than America.

NY 105-6112

b2 [] added that several new people had recently b7C joined the NRP and that he believed them to be Communists.
b7D He stated these persons were []
and [] and that he believed that MADOLE and WEISS were cognizant of the fact that these people are Communists but are willing to accept aid from any quarter.

B. INDIVIDUALS CONNECTED WITH THE NRP

The following persons are believed to be the present
active members of the NRP:

JAMES H. MADOLE 114-111

b2 [] stated that MADOLE had controlled the NRP
b7D since its beginning and that he is a very radical person dedicated to the ideals of Fascism. He said that MADOLE definitely believes that he will some day be able to convert the United States to Fascism. He said that MADOLE is the principal speech maker at the party meetings and is recognized as the supreme leader of the party.

FREDERICK WEISS

b2 [] stated that WEISS continues to support the NRP
b7D from behind the scenes and still exercises almost complete control over MADOLE and the party's activities. He said that WEISS recently has become very provoked at the manner in which MADOLE has handled certain situations and has threatened on numerous occasions to withdraw his financial support from the NRP, but the informant believes that this is merely talk and WEISS will continue to support MADOLE.

b2 [] stated that WEISS is the key figure behind the b7D NRP, as well as other neo-Nazi organizations. He said he believes that without WEISS' support, which he estimates to be about one half, the NRP would collapse.

NY 105-6112

b2

b7C

b7D

[redacted] and [redacted] both stated they believed [redacted] to be a Communist who was presently supporting the NRP under the pretense that he believed in national socialism. They stated they did not know what the reason was for his activity.

b2

b7C

b7D

[redacted] of known reliability, stated in August 1953, that [redacted] was a card-carrying Communist and had indicated a close familiarity with [redacted] well-known Communist [redacted]. This informant said that [redacted] was an "out and out" Communist and that he had joined the NRP in May 1953 in order to obtain information concerning its members which he intended to turn over to the authorities. This informant said that [redacted] was being employed for this work by one [redacted] and that [redacted] received periodic reports concerning the activities of the subject group from [redacted].

b2

b7C

b7D

[redacted] and [redacted] both indicated that they believed [redacted] was a Communist and that she recently had been conducting activities in behalf of the NRP and has been indicated to be the [redacted].

C. ACTION TAKEN TO IMPLEMENT THE PROGRAM OF THE NRP

1. Meetings

b7D [] stated that the NRP held public street meetings on Friday evenings at eight o'clock during the summer of 1953. He said that most of these meetings were held at 88th Street and York Avenue and that they had been held continuously until October 16, 1953, except for several weeks in August when either rain or MADOLE'S absence from the city had caused their cancellation.

He said that these meetings were usually attended by some 50 to 100 persons. He said that a police detail was assigned to cover these meetings and for the most part kept very good order and did not allow the crowd to interfere with the NRP speakers.

b7D [] stated that the most sensational aspect of these meetings was the appearance of five or ten young men dressed to simulate German Storm Troopers. He said they wore black shirts, black pants, and black boots with peaked caps and the red emblem of the NRP on their arms. He said that at several meetings several young girls had appeared in similar uniforms and were called the Women's Elite Guard. The informant said that these uniforms particularly tended to incite the crowd and that several weeks ago the police had told the members of the NRP that they could no longer wear them at the meetings.

[] further stated that MADOLE had announced at the meeting on October 16, 1953, that no more outdoor meetings would be held. At this time a pamphlet was passed out indicating a meeting scheduled at the Slovak House, 241 East 75 Street, New York City, on October 21, 1953. The informant stated that the people who owned this meeting hall, upon finding out what type of organization the NRP was, would not allow it to use their meeting hall and so no meeting was held. He stated that MADOLE and others of the NRP have been attempting to find a place for their indoor meetings but have not as yet been successful, inasmuch as their activities are fairly well known in New York and no one is willing to allow them the use of a meeting hall.

[] of known reliability, advised that after meetings of the NRP cars bearing the following New York license numbers were seen to pick up members of the party and transport them away from the meetings: [] and 7J2505.

The records of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, State of New York, revealed that the owner of the first license is [] and that the second license number belonged to the A & B Auto Rental Company, 239 East 56 Street, New York City.

[] Company, indicated that the above automobile had been rented on numerous occasions to []. He further indicated that [] had indicated to him that he was working for a [] and he assumed that [] was giving [] the money for the rental of this car.

2. Publication

[] stated that the National Renaissance Bulletin, which has been published regularly on a monthly basis, has not been printed since August 1953. He said the reason for this was that WEISS had a big argument with [] who was the []. The informant said that WEISS would not let [] anything for the NRP and that so far the party has been unable to find a []. He said that a few leaflets and announcements of meetings had been distributed by the party but they had been mimeographed at the home of one of the members.

[] of unknown reliability, on October 30, 1953, furnished literature which had been distributed by the NRP concerning the New York City mayoralty election. This literature was purely anti-Semitic in character.

3. Affiliation With Other Groups

No information has been forthcoming during the period of this report which indicates that the NRP has attempted to affiliate itself with any other group or that it has been in contact with other organizations in the United States.

b7C MADOLE who has been the leader of this organization since b7D its inception. He stated that Party literature lists the New York Headquarters of the NRP as [redacted] NRP [redacted] which is the apartment of [redacted]
who is known in the Party as [redacted]

b7C This informant stated that it is becoming more b7D and more apparent that the Communist Party element which entered the subject organization in the Spring of 1953 is acquiring complete control of the Party and its policies. The informant listed these persons whom he believed were connected with the Communist Party, USA
as [redacted] and a new member by the name of [redacted]

[redacted] said that he believed that all these persons were working under the direct control of and with the financial backing of [redacted]

b2 [redacted] The informant stated
b7C that with the coming to power of these Communist elements b7D in the Party that the Party line has been altered and is now almost completely one of anti-semitism, whereas formerly it was strongly nationalistic as well as pro-German.

b7C The informant was unable to give any reasons b7D for his statements that the aforementioned persons were affiliated with the Communist Party or any reasons as to their taking over control of the subject organization.
He did state, however, that he believed that it was possible that [redacted] was fostering this group on one hand and propagandizing it as a threat to national security, while on the other hand he was assertedly combatting such elements with his anti-Nazi league and thereby was profiting financially.

b7C The informant further stated that FREDERICK b7D WEISS, who has been a constant supporter of the NRP and has advised MADOLE for many years, has supported [redacted] in his attempt to gain control of the Party from MADOLE.

NY 105-6112

b7C He said that WEISS has furnished both money and counsel b7D to [] in this endeavor. The informant stated he had gained the impression from persons connected with the NRP that WEISS had paid for a mimeograph machine which is located at [] apartment and is used by him for printing pamphlets and handbills for the Party.

He said that WEISS has instructed [] to gather all possible information regarding homosexuality among leaders in the nationalism field, such as

[] and
[] so that he will be able to blackmail them with this information and keep them under his control. The informant said that [] has recently been busily engaged in sending out letters to members of the Party as well as other individuals in the New York City area praising the work done for the NRP by []
In these letters [] signs MADOLE's name and has always signed MADOLE's name to most of the mimeographed literature printed by him without MADOLE's consent.

[] stated that the Party has held no more public meetings since October, 1953 as they have been unable to locate a meeting hall; all such attempts having been fruitless because of the adverse publicity received by the NRP.

[] of unknown reliability, but who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated that he had recently received documents purporting to be from JAMES MADOLE announcing his discontinuation of activities in the New York area and his removal to the mid-west and south and his solicitation of funds for same.
These documents also contained an endorsement of [] which were a reply to some allegations published in the "Anti-Defamation League Bulletin", identifying [] as an out-and-out Communist. He stated that he believed these letters had been [] himself and were part of the campaign to dislodge MADOLE as head of the NRP and install [] and his associates, whom this informant believes to be Communists.

NY 105-6112

b7C He was unable to give any reasons for this b7D belief except that it was common knowledge among persons in New York City that [] had himself stated that he was a Communist.

The "Anti-Defamation League Bulletin" dated November, 1953 contained an article entitled "How Can I Become a Menace". This article contained a brief background of the NRP and information concerning its present activities, which was stated in a belittling and ridiculing manner. This article further mentioned that MANA TRUHILL, one of the Party members, had recently gone to the Anti-Defamation League's office in an effort to sell information concerning MADOLE and his Party. The article further stated that TRUHILL had admitted to the Anti-Defamation League that he is a Communist and attends the Jefferson School, a Communist educational plant. This article also contained pictures of MANA TRUHILL, RUTH ROSS and JOHN M. LUNDOFF in the uniform of the NRP.

b7C Information furnished by [] and [] concerning b7D this individual is contained in Section A of this report.

b2 [] of unknown reliability, but who has furnished
b7C accurate information in the past, stated in January, 1954 b7D that he had been at [] apartment on several occasions, the latest visit being in December, 1953. He stated that he had heard [] say that he formerly was a Communist but had renounced Communism and now was a devout nationalist and was dedicated to the principles of the NRP.

b2 [] said that on [] b7C he had seen much evidence of Communist b7D sympathy including pictures of STALIN and copies of the "Daily Worker", but since his last visit these pictures

NY 105-6112

b7C had been replaced by those of HITLER and other Nazi b7D leaders. He said that while at [redacted] he had heard a machine operating in the bedroom, which sounded to him like a mimeograph machine.

b2 [redacted] further stated that he believed that b7C [redacted] intended to take over complete control of the b7D NRP and run it according to his own wishes.

The "Daily Worker" is an East Coast Communist daily publication.

b2 [redacted] of unknown reliability, but who has furnished
b7C reliable information in the past, advised in December, 1953 b7D that he believes [redacted] to be a Communist, but that he has no definite evidence upon which to base this conclusion. He said he based this upon the fact that [redacted] and his associates seemed to be working extremely hard in their attempts to involve [redacted] and the Voters Alliance for Americans of German Ancestry with the NRP and to create such adverse publicity that all such German-type organizations will become smeared
as anti-semitic and anti-United States.

b2 [redacted] said that [redacted] had, on several occasions, b7C attempted to blackmail [redacted] into joining the b7D Voters Alliance with the NRP by such means as telling [redacted] that unless such a merger took place slandorous statements concerning [redacted] and his associates would be published.

b2 [redacted] said that it is his opinion that [redacted]
b7C has possibly sold material concerning himself in the b7D NRP to [redacted]
and to [redacted]

FREDERICK WEISS

b2 Information concerning this individual as b7D furnished by [redacted] is set out in Section A of this report.

NY 105-6112

[] advised that ~~FREDERICK~~ WEISS is an Alien German who resides at a farm in Middletown, New York. He said that WEISS is an senile man who loves to write, but who is unable to get anyone to publish his writings. Because of this WEISS has consistently donated money to JAMES MADOLE inasmuch as MADOLE would print anything and everything which WEISS prepared in the "National Renaissance Bulletin".

[] further said that in view of the extremely adverse publicity which has been received recently by the NRP that WEISS ordered MADOLE to cease holding NRP meetings.

JAMES MADOLE

[] stated that in his opinion MADOLE is mentally unstable and thereby easily becomes prey to any radical organization. He said that he believes that MADOLE has been completely ousted from leadership in the NRP by [] and that he is reported to be planning to move to the South.

[] stated that MADOLE has not been nearly as active in NRP affairs recently as he was formerly and states the reason for this is that [] has assumed leadership and makes all the decisions concerning NRP policy. [] stated that he believes MADOLE will be forced out of the Party if, in fact, it has not already been done. He said that without support by WEISS, MADOLE would never have been able to maintain control of the NRP and that this support has now been shifted to []

[] stated that the newest member of the NRP is [] who is a [] The informant says he believes that [] may be a Communist sympathizer as he appears to be in with the group which is assuming control of the NRP.

NY 105-6112

b2

b7C

b7D

[redacted] stated that [redacted] was formerly an important member of the NRP but was ousted because of his drunken conduct at several of the NRP meetings.

b2

b7C

b7D

[redacted] of unknown reliability, stated in January, 1954 that [redacted] has been attempting to gain control of the NRP from JAMES MADOLE. He stated that [redacted] intends to obtain the Party mailing list from MADOLE, by force if necessary, and hopes to combat the Communist element within the Party and take over with himself as supreme command.

b2

b7C

b7D

[redacted] said that [redacted] only objects in this appears to be that of obtaining financial gain for himself, and he is not motivated by any great nationalistic purposes.

b2

b7C

b7D

[redacted] identified [redacted] as a member of the NRP who is reported to have advocated the extermination of the Jewish people in the United States.

b2

b7C

b7D

[redacted] stated that he understands that [redacted] donated $300.00 to the NRP, of which he is a member, and he believes it is probable that [redacted] is working for the Anti-Nazi League.

b2

b7C

b7D

[redacted] identified MERTIG as a former member of the NRP who has completely broken with that organization because [redacted] allegedly broke into his apartment for some unknown reason.

C. ACTION TAKEN TO IMPLEMENT THE PROGRAM OF THE NRP

1. Meetings

b2

b7D

[redacted] stated that no public meetings have been

NY 105-6112

held by the Party since October, 1953 due to the difficulty they have encountered in obtaining a meeting hall. He stated that it is possible that private meetings have been held at the apartments of some of the members, but that no publicity has been given any such meetings.

[redacted] stated that he has attended several meetings at [redacted] at [redacted] at which persons whom he considered to be members of the NRP were present. He said, however, that these meetings were not specifically designated as NRP meetings and that no Party business was transacted.

[redacted] of unknown reliability, advised in November, 1953 that [redacted] of his had told him that he had attended a meeting of the NRP at [redacted]

[redacted] on about [redacted] The informant said that his acquaintance believed the persons at this meeting were all Communists and that he gained this impression from statements that were made by them.

He said that one particular individual at this meeting who claimed to be an [redacted] said that "Before you get what you want in this world you have to kill a million people, as you will be executed if you kill only one or two".

It is noted that [redacted] has at times stated that he was an [redacted]

2. Publications

[redacted] furnished a copy of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" dated October, 1953 which carried an article by FREDERICK WEISS entitled "Brotherhood, Part III". The informant said he believed this was printed in Beacon, New York and was the first indication that the NRP had been able to secure a new printer. He said that no issues of the bulletin were published since early August because the former printer was no longer to be used by the Party.

NY 105-6112

This latest bulletin also carried an article by JAMES H. MADOLE entitled, "The Program of the NRP" in which the nine-point program of the Party was set out. This program was a restatement of the NRP's platform of anti-semitism, anti-UN, anti-German and strong national socialism.

b2 [] also furnished a pamphlet entitled, "Brotherhood" written by WEISS which had been distributed by the NRP which contained a subheading entitled, "In Russia They Execute Them the Prague and Beria Way -- In U.S.A. They Promote Them the Dexter-White Way."

b2 [] further stated that all material put out recently by the NRP has been completely anti-semitic and that most of it has been signed by [] meaning [] He said that several gummed stickers have been placed on automobiles in public places bearing the following slogans, "Crush Communism -- Revive Nazism -- Join the NRP -- Kill the Jews -- Save the White Race".

3. Affiliation with Other Groups

b7C No information has been forthcoming during the period of this report which indicates that the NRP has attempted to affiliate itself with any other groups or that it has been in contact with any other organizations in the United States. However, it should be noted that [] is presently in control of the NRP, has been frequently reported to be a member of the Communist Party, USA and may be utilizing the NRP organizational setup for the interests of that group.

from organization), Present [redacted] The Board of Directors is composed of the above officers and [redacted] (no relation to [redacted] According to [redacted] the organization no longer has membership dues, operating on a donation basis alone; further, that he estimated that the organization has approximately one hundred members.

[redacted] advised that since [redacted] visit to and expulsion from Germany in August, 1953, there has been only one meeting of captioned organization and that there are no plans at present for having any business meetings in the near future. [redacted] stated that invitations had been sent out for a Christmas party to be held Saturday evening, December 19 at 8:30 p.m. at Mozart Hall, 328 East 86th St., New York City, third floor; further that this party would be exclusively for entertainment with color slides of Germany to be shown with refreshments.

According to [redacted] so much unfavorable publicity has been generated recently especially by the activities of the NRF, that the VAAGA was unable to hold its annual Christmas party at the Cafe Rheinland, as it customarily did.

September 11, 1953, according to [redacted] the VAAGA held its first meeting at the Cafe Rheinland after [redacted] return to the United States from Germany. About one-half hour before the meeting was scheduled to be concluded, two persons, dressed in pseudo-Nazi Storm Troopers' uniforms and a girl dressed in the female counterpart of these uniforms, entered the meeting room. [redacted] stated that the two men were [redacted] and [redacted] and the woman's name was [redacted] According to [redacted] the two men proceeded to the rostrum where [redacted] was speaking, placing themselves one on each side, at which time the girl started to take pictures. At this point, [redacted] forcibly removed the camera from the girl's possession. [redacted] stated that these three persons were members of the NRF and that the above actions were part of the plan conceived and attempted by [redacted] to involve [redacted] and the VAAGA with the adverse publicity which has been received by the NRF due to its extreme anti-Semitic stand.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY

[redacted] advised that the NRF has been headed by JAMES MADOLE, who originally organized the party. MADOLE is characterized by [redacted] as being mentally unstable, a coward who has no will whatsoever of his own; further, that in the Spring of 1953, the NRP had been infiltrated by two elements which [] personally believes to be partially Communist and partially agents for the Anti-Nazi League and the Anti-Defamation League. NK 97-134

FREDERICK C. F. WEISS

[redacted] was introduced to WEISS by CONDE MCGINLEY. MCGINLEY is the editor of a newspaper "Common Sense" published in Union, New Jersey, and allegedly extremely anti-Semitic. According to [redacted] WEISS and [redacted] felt themselves to be of a similar school of thought intellectually and for that reason, became closely associated. [redacted] stated this was not due to a complete meeting of minds, but due to the fact that each felt that by furnishing one another information and working together that more could be accomplished in the long run. [redacted] stated, however, that [redacted] has recently completely broken with WEISS. According to [redacted] WEISS has never made a donation of any sizable amount to either [redacted] or the VAAGA.

JAMES MADOLE

[redacted] stated that in his opinion, MADOLE is mentally unstable and actually easily becomes prey to any radical organization; further, that MADOLE has been completely ousted from leadership of the NRF by [redacted] and is reported to be planning to move to the South.

Hon. Herbert Brownell
Attorney General
Department of Justice
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Attached hereto is an article from the American Hebrew, a newspaper dated April 2, 1954 referring to the National Renaissance Party, the neo-Nazi organization headed by James H. Madole.

Last summer, JWV conducted a series of Americanism rallies on the opposite street corner in Yorkville at the very same time that Madole was holding his Un-American rallies.

This organization is brought to your attention for investigation since we feel that the record of this group is subversive, Un-American, and belongs on the Attorney General's list.

I would appreciate your advising this organization of any action which you may take in this matter.

WHO THREW ANTI-SEMITIC PAMPHLETS FROM WINDOWS AT TIMES SQUARE?

Last Friday about 1 o'clock, Times Square got a taste of brown-shirt propaganda methods, as hundreds of flimsy leaflets fluttered down from the windows of a building. The leaflets bore the lying slogan "COMMUNISM — a Jewish world plot!" The whole thing was reminiscent of Berlin when the Nazis were trying to take over, about 1930.

This hate literature was rubber-stamped with the name and address of the National Renaissance Party, the neo-Nazi organization headed by James H. Madole, whose anti-Semitic meetings held on street corners in Yorkville last summer became a disgraceful blot on the record of New York.

The leaflets themselves were printed by Einar Aberg, a neo-Nazi agitator living at Norrviken, Sweden, with the date "February, 1954." They bore the photographs of four of America's most distinguished citizens, Bernard Baruch, Henry Morgenthau Jr., Justice Felix Frankfurter and Senator Herbert Lehman. The leaflets, for "anti-semitic" purposes, was also the photograph of Lazar Kaganovich, economic specialist in the Soviet's Politburo. The group was labeled "Some of the Jewish conspirators."

Aberg has long been one of the world's most notorious sources of anti-Semitic agitation. His leaflets, printed in a dozen different languages, and designed for consumption in as many different countries, carry on the propaganda line of Goebbels and Rosenberg. He is reported to be the beneficiary of considerable funds left to Sweden by the Nazis during the war. In 1933 Aberg was arrested under Sweden's Group Libel Law, but succeeded in escaping with a small fine.

Gerald L. K. Smith has been lyrical in his praise of Aberg. In an editorial in THE CROSS AND THE FLAG, headed "Aberg, the Crusader," Smith says: "In Sweden there is a man of great courage, by the name of Einar Aberg. He has sent out many millions of tracts the world over in many languages."

Some of Aberg's pamphlets are entitled "Behind Communism Stands The Jew!," "The Whole World Is Crying To Madagascar With The Jews!," "Why I Am Anti-Jewish," etc. According to one pamphlet called "War Criminals," the "Criminals" were not Hitler and Mussolini, but the Jews, and especially Bernard Baruch.

Aberg's scandalous and lying propaganda is reprinted by anti-Semitic agitators all over the world — and sometimes he re-

U. S. Asks Soviets

The seven top Nazis whose release has been proposed by the Western Powers were sentenced in 1948 by the International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg. They include Baron Konstantin von Neurath, former Nazi Foreign Minister and "protector" of Czechoslovakia; Erich Raeder, former Grand Admiral; Rudolf Hess, former Deputy Fuehrer; Walther Funk, Reichsbank president; Albert Speer, Munitions Minister; Hitler Youth leader Baldur von Schirach; and former Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz.

LONDON (JTA) — An estimated 60,000 former Nazis now living in West Germany under assumed names are to be offered a new amnesty by the Adenauer government. It was reported here from Bonn. The 60,000 are believed to be men with such records that they feared to take advantage of the last amnesty offered to Nazis in 1950.

prints material from American anti-Semites for distribution elsewhere. One current Aberg pamphlet, for example, contains quotes from Kurt Mertig (New York Chairman of the National Renaissance Party), THE BROOM (West Coast hate-weekly) and Gerald L. K. Smith's Patriotic Tract Society.

In a true sense, Aberg is one of the main figures in what may correctly be called an "International Hate Cartel," which engages in starting lies against Jews and other minorities, and in propagating the purposes of Nazism on a world-wide scale.

Nothing could demonstrate more clearly the Nazi-like purpose of the National Renaissance Party — whose headquarters are in New York — than the fact that they selected Aberg's infamous leaflets as the material with which to launch a propaganda attack in Times Square.

This neo-Nazi group has been engaged in passing out hate literature in many parts of the country. Its latest distribution in New York has been directed by one of the NRP's "elite guardsmen," named Louis Mosiacco. Two staff members of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, on their way through Times Square Friday, recognized this man on the spot.

Other Renaissance Party branches in New Jersey; Pennsylvania, Georgia and California, are reported engaged in the same kind of nefarious activity. As noted on this page several weeks ago, the NRP maintains what it calls an "Auslands Büro," which keeps in touch with similar evil organizations in other countries so it is not surprising to find large quantities of Aberg's literature in the hands of this group. Good Americans may begin wondering, however, why the Attorney General's office has delayed until now before adding this

ADOLF HITLER

20 APRIL 1889

International Jewish-Communism has always been a threat to Aryan Civilization and that Great German Statesman ADOLF HITLER was the FIRST to combat this deadly enemy before the world. What Adolf Hitler gave to the German Nation cannot be denied, What National Socialism bestowed upon the German people stands before the world as a monument to all of the Western World. No one can change the deep intense nationalistic feeling that Adolf Hitler taught them to feel toward the State. Nationalism is the only antidote to the poison of Jewish-World-Communism. The Western World will never forget the struggle of the N.S.D.A.P. in the early twenties, nor will they forget how foolish some of them were to oppose Adolf Hitler's New Order. Now we see that Only NATIONALISM CAN NEUTRALIZE AND DEFEAT JEWISH-INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM.!!

Dear sir;

These are the instructions mentioned at the top of the first page. In order to contact us, tear off a small strip from the bottom of this page and put it in your mail box, leaving a small piece hanging out so it can be seen by someone in the front of the post office. However, don't leave enough hanging out to make it conspicuous. After you do this, we will contact you, probably by telephone. You might place an envelope containing an unwanted ad over the strip of paper in order to prevent it from being removed when more mail is placed in your box. If it would be convenient for you to do so, you might put the strip in the box on the day which you receive this.

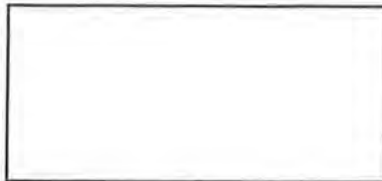

We are expecting some new copies of the bulletin, having ordered some several days ago. When these arrive, a copy will promptly be sent to you.

Thanking you, we are very

Sincerely yours,

N.R.P.

The National Renaissance Party (NRP) is a neo-Nazi, anti-Semitic and Nationalist organization which is headed by James H. Madole of Beacon, New York. The NRP is the subject of Bureau investigation in which New York is Office of Origin. Investigative reports regarding the NRP have been disseminated to the Department and intelligence agencies of the Armed Services.

By airtel dated May 26, 1954, the Newark Office advised that a member of the NRP was instructed to incite riots by white students in the South in view of the recent U. S. Supreme Court decision banning segregation in schools. This NRP member also instructed to contact the Columbians to determine whether firearms are available. The Columbians, a terrorist-type organization, is now defunct. The NRP member who was instructed to incite riots identified as [REDACTED]

In view of the possibility the NRP may expand its activities, particularly in the South in regard to race riots, it is believed the field should be alerted to the activities of this organization. A suggested SAC Letter concerning this matter is attached.

No Manual change is necessary in connection with this SAC Letter.

RECOMMENDATION:

If you approve, it is recommended the attached SAC Letter be transmitted. (The Department and intelligence agencies of the Armed Services have been advised by separate communication.)

BROTHERHOOD?

(Part 4)

FREDERICK CHAS. F. WEISS

We will attempt now to show why all this HAD to come; why it HAD to happen . . . , because we let it happen; how we tried to adhere to this or that, but NOT to the necessary . . . and why now we are confronted with the nothing: with our final abdication from the political platform! For, what the individual will not do, Fate (and what a Fate) will do with him!

"Historical" man is the man of Culture, that is in full march towards self-fulfillment. Before this, after this, outside of this, man is historyless, and the destinies of the people to which he belongs matter as little as the earth's destiny matters when the plan of attention is the astronomical and not the geological.

Culture is the being of nations in state-form. A nation, a living and struggling unit flowing in the stream of history, possesses above all a State as an idea. Even very lowly animal genera, not to speak of ants, bees, migrating birds, beavers, etc., have "constitutions" of some sort.

Peoples as States are the real forces of all human happenings; they are destiny. Every State that emerges in history exists as it is but once and for a moment; the next moment it has, imperceptibly, undergone a mutation, whatever the rigidity of its legal constitution. The systematically planned State of the theorist will ever contrast with the State of actuality. FOR NO REAL CONSTITUTION, WHEN TAKEN BY ITSELF AND COMMITTED TO PAPER AS A SYSTEM IS COMPLETE. The description of a State or its constitutional archives cannot give us even the silhouette of that which underlies the living actuality of a State as its essential form. For the unwritten, that is the indescribable, yet so usual, so readily felt, so self evident, by far outweighs everything else. If we seriously subject an existence-unit of history to the constraint of a written constitution, and then critically fix our eyes upon its form, we soon find out that it is no longer "in condition" to wrestle successfully in and with history. This holds equally true for the smallest as for the largest unit in the stream of history, for a family as well as for a nation.

However different their ideas of a State was from the concept of their forefathers, the idea which underlaid the historical manifestation of our Founding Fathers, they had to act consciously or unconsciously under the spell of the culture of their ancestors. For their soul would not let them do otherwise. They responded to the spell of the same culture which had produced the peoples of Europe, but not of a culture which had been produced by these peoples.

And so our Nation was born, not merely by a strong common spiritual feeling of our people, and certainly not through an already existing linguistic or political, or zoological bond, but mainly through an IDEA of our spiritual Elite which had to act under the spell of a Western culture.

But what has become of this Constitution? In this Hour of Decision the destiny question for us all now is whether our State exists in the effectiveness of the spirit of our constitution, not in the moral of an impractical dreamer and Brotherhood-babbler, but in the steadiness, sureness and superiority of political leadership, or whether the strength of our constitutional leadership has been shattered and our nation has already become the victim of an alien policy . . . forever. The question is, whether our leaders' responsibility is still above all to a minority, to our spiritual Elite, that possesses the instinct of statesmanship and represents our Nation in the true spirit of our constitution -- or whether our "leaders" feel themselves responsible to another minority in our midst: To those spiritual members of an international, boundless and landless Jewish Consensus, to those Jewish subjects of an alien nation, whose nation-consciousness, derived from a particular and defined world-feeling, is entirely different from ours as we have seen before.

Over the last six millenia and up to this day the savants of the Consensus shaped their nation's fate by feeling for, and ascertaining, the general conviction of their associates, which could not err because the mind of God and the mind of the community are the same . . . while we, nations and individuals alike, sought to shape our future, each for himself, and fought one another, nay annihilated one another!

So long as the world powers were without exception European powers, so long as these powers fought one another, sometimes over miserable scraps of land; so long as our own coal, industry, bank and bourse element fought our settler and planter element in the South, the members of the Consensus could not possibly understand the passion with which we Westerners livingly experienced the decisive turns of our history and destiny. For them all this lay thirty generations back.

But things changed fundamentally when with the beginning of our century the VISIBLE decay of one Western state after another set in; when with the disappearance of "Staatshoheit", the repressive force of one state after another in Europe vanished, when we so crowned our suicidal effort and obliged the Consensus by tearing down what centuries had built up. That was the time when the savants of the elect knew that their hour had come. At least 25 years before our deplorable statesmen could see it, the Consensus began to comprehend that with our entry upon the age of world wars the transition from the eighteenth century world of states to the imperium mundi had set in. Even today our "leaders" have not realized this hard fact. For how otherwise could be explained their state-destroying wish for "universal Brotherhood" by abdicating in favor of a supernational government?

After the Consensus in launching against all of us a Yellow-Brown-Black offensive under a Red leadership, after stirring up a class war from below and a race war from without, after his "glorious recapture" of Jerusalem, can we now only assume that this alien nation is willing to renounce her aspiration for world domination or give up the desire to fulfill her mission? Are we really to believe that, because a few members of the upper stratum of the elect have lost every kind of inward cohesion, the Consensus will regionally fall into parts or willingly give up his worldwide cohesion; once our famous U.N. will declare Universal Peace, once our own world pacifists and Brotherhood-babblers, our theorists and professors, our utopians and humanists, our law-makers and shoe-makers, will have signed away our historic rights and our freedom?

Once on this globe we all have become brethren, will the Consensus give up the accomplishment of the task that in its belief historic necessity has set for him? Would not Universal-Brotherhood presuppose the absurd assumption that Yahweh, in order to become Jesus' benign and Heavenly Father of all humanity, undergoes a sudden and extraordinary transformation? That wrathful, irascible, unforgiving God of our Jewish brethren; that Yahweh from whom the elect expects that "he crushes the unrighteous. . . that he lay waste the country of the unbelievers. . . that he destroys -- with a rod of iron their being. . . that he breaks their pride like a potters' vessel. . . that he makes nations flee before him at his threatening. . . that he will gather his "holy people and rule over them in righteousness. . ." that neither settler nor stranger shall dwell among them (in Palestine!). . . that, so long as they serve him, he will hold the Gentiles in yoke."

(—Psalm of Solomon., Ps. 17)

Does anybody believe in such an absurd transmutation? Will the majority of the elect follow the small minority, the stubborn and zealous few, and return to the "Israeli homeland" and leave us in peace? When, on the other hand, history teaches us how in the "Exile" this alien nation increased enormously beyond the old small clan limits, when she destroyed the political power of one after the other of her host peoples by manipulating at will their economic potentialities, when the dispersed majority turned so successfully to "conversions" as the ugly form of conquest open to a landless nation? Do we not have right here the best proof of the immense aggressive power of this "conversion?" When we can daily witness how the Consensus succeeds in the more and more radical political elimination of our own spiritual Elite, of those few who alone would still be able to find their way from thinking in terms of party lines to thinking in terms of statesmanship? The more radical this elimination, the more completely is our electoral mass delivered by their party leaders into the hands of the Consensus.

And so with that the Consensus has now succeeded in changing the name of our Republic to the finest sounding of all, freedom and democracy, but in reality it has turned it over to the worst thing of all, to the mob, ruled by the Consensus. Yet, not satisfied with their "remodeling" job over here, our wire-pullers now even FORCE us to impose their "paradise" of a State upon our brother nations and to reject every refusal of acceptance with the warning: "UND WILLST DU NICHT MEIN BRUDER SEIN, SO SCHLAG ICH DIR DEN SCHAEDEL EIN"!

But what are the upper strata of our society and our "leaders" doing to stem this progressive Bolshevization of our masses? Where is the opposition of graded social structure against our town-masses, of tradition against mob-rule, of the higher existence of the few against the lower of mass-labor, when at best we can see only our Me-Too-Politicians seeking in vain a conciliatory middle course against the radical tendencies of our misguided masses. As if this radical age would permit compromises! As if this will to the middle way was nothing else but the senile wish for peace at any price, even the price of our liberty! Can we discern as yet any other focus of resistance against this diabolically organized mob-rule? Is this revolution not striding unchecked towards its ultimate decision with the historical recklessness of a terrible destiny to which we and all the other white peoples must inevitably succumb. . . if not checked by a handful of thoroughbreds, by some individuals who make history? Or are we waiting with our counter-measures for a real "emergency", for the day, that is, when the Consensus will have succeeded in its effort to join physically the forces of class war from within with those of race war from without? Neither of these two Revolutions will disdain the aid of the other because it despises its supporters, for a common hatred against the white man extinguishes their mutual contempt.

Can we for one moment doubt that this planned joining of these forces would have been accomplished long ago had it not been for a temporary miscarriage of the Master Plan! When with the appearance of the Red Fascist (!) Stalin and the "abdication" of Trotzky, the Consensus' State within the Red State had to go more and more underground, when Marxian Bolshevism retreated before the furor of an Asiatic "Horde", led by a new Ghengis Khan.

Eisenhower Has Betrayed The American People

JAMES H. MADOLE

The political actions of the Eisenhower Administration, during its first year in office, prove conclusively that the Republican Party is following in the footsteps of that clique of pro-Communist Jewish radicals known as the "Truman Gang". Just as the pro-leftist Jewish labor czars and professional tolerance merchants like the American Jewish Congress, Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'rith and the National Ass'n For The Advancement of Colored People all supported the pro-Soviet Roosevelt and Truman Administrations; just so did the Jewish international bankers and stock exchange pirates of Wall Street, together with their Gentile counterparts, support Eisenhower as their puppet. On July 6, 1953, David Senter, a political writer for the Hearst papers stated that Sidney J. Weinberg, a Wall Street investment banker of the renowned Jewish firm, Goldman, Sachs and Company, is the man behind the guns in the Eisenhower Administration. The second guiding light behind the Eisenhower Gang is that modern rendition of the Medieval Court Jew, Bernard M. Baruch. Bernie's job is to supply the brains for our golf playing tourists of choice American vacation spots, who occasionally inhabit the White House. Eisenhower's Cabinet looks like the "Home For Old Israel" with such kosher Americans as Lewis L. Strauss, a Jewish Kuhn-Loeb banker, as boss of our Atomic Energy Commission, Freda Henneck and Sammie Groner as Commissars of the Federal Communications Commission and Maxie Rabb as his White House Assistant. Eisenhower's regime will perpetuate the internationalist squandering of our manpower and resources so successfully begun by Roosevelt over twenty years ago.

American democracy can still be accurately defined as, "government of the Jews, by the Jews, and for the Jews". Thus, in all nations, the Jewish Capitalists on the right and the Jewish Communists, Socialists and Liberals on the left have worked as a revolutionary unit to promote Jewish aims and ambitions at the expense of the overwhelming Gentile majority. Thus it was the leading Jewish Capitalists like the Warburgs, Schiffs and Mondes who put up 20 million dollars to finance the ostensibly anti-Capitalist Red Revolution in Czarist Russia. Actually the Red Revolution established complete Jewish domination over the cultural, political and economic life of the Russian people. The Gentile aristocrats, intellectuals and industrial tycoons were liquidated, leaving a well trained Jewish intelligentsia sia in control of an uneducated Russian peasantry. This same vicious Jewish campaign of genocide is being carried out in the Baltic States, Eastern Europe and the Balkans. The Jewish Commissars of the Kremlin are just as fiendish as their Zionist co-racials in Palestine, where the tortured screams of Arab women and children cry out to high heaven for vengeance.

The names of Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower will rank in historical infamy with that of Judas Iscariot, the unfaithful apostle who sold Christ to the Jews for thirty pieces of silver. These American political hacks, the standard bearers of "word-brotherhood", have sold 160,000,000 Americans into slavery to the descendants of the very same Jews who purchased Jesus Christ at a much more nominal fee. How our Jewish comrades must have rubbed their hands in unholy glee as the decrepid Eisenhower parroted the speech which their ghost writers had prepared, turning American atomic energy know-how over to the motley assortment of African cannibals, Asiatic ancestor worshippers and East Side Kikes which comprise the intellectual dung heap known to our apostles of "human brotherhood" as the United Nations. Eisenhower's attack on the activities of the heroic Senator McCarthy were motivated by the same anti-Christian sources.

In the January, 1953 edition of the National Renaissance Bulletin, Mr. Frederick Weiss analyzed Eisenhower's Inaugural Address as follows:

"Eisenhower's purpose in everything is to actualize United Nations world domination. Eisenhower dares not abandon this purpose, even if he could. He is reminded of this objective daily by the same crew of aliens who controlled the policies of Truman and Roosevelt, who demand that American troops fight under the hybrid rag of the United Nations rather than under Old Glory, and who have contempt for all national and racial pride."

"The worst aspect of Eisenhower's speech is the constant anti-American undertone. Americans are not superior. American resources belong to the entire world, to the Peruvian Indians, the rice growers in Burma and the Zulu Hottentots. Anything left over can be had by Eisenhower's loyal but stupid American subjects. There must be a United Nations world-empire which will be controlled by the small group of cosmopolitan aliens in New York City, who now sit in the great glass building and play at being God."

"There are two kinds of enemies which a nation may have: inner enemies and outer enemies. The inner enemy is far more dangerous, since he masquerades as a loyal patriot, but, in effect, he is an alien. One traitor within the fortress is more dangerous than a hundred divisions without. This makes Eisenhower, the man who places the interests of the United Nations ahead of the interests of the United States, the outstanding inner enemy of America."

Compare these statements of a year ago with present day facts.

We wish to thank our loyal followers for their quick response to our financial appeal last month. Many letters begged us not to relinquish the struggle on the all important East Coast. We have discovered a possible method of continuing our mass meetings despite the opposition of that professional Jew-lover, Mayor Wagner of New York. We are proud to announce that new branches of the party are being formed in Pennsylvania under Messrs. E. R. Barron and Frederick Polzin, and in New Jersey under Mr. Lawrence Sestito.

Please continue to supply us with the financial ammunition with which to fire our broadsides at the enemies of America. We are dependent on you. Subscriptions to this Bulletin cost $2.00 per 12 issues. Extra copies of any issue are available at the rate of 10 copies per $1.00. Party membership cards cost $1.00. "More than thirty years have now passed since in 1914 I made my modest contribution as a volunteer in the First World War, which was forced upon the Reich."

In these three decades I have been actuated solely by love and loyalty to my people. It is untrue that I, or anyone else in Germany, wanted the war in 1939. It was desired and instigated solely by those international statesmen who were either of Jewish descent or worked for Jewish interests. I have made too many offers for the control and limitation of armaments, which posterity will not for all time be able to disregard, for the responsibility for the outbreak of this war to be laid on me. I have further never wished that, after the fatal First World War, a second against England or against America, should break out. Centuries will pass away, but out of the ruins of our towns and monuments hatred will grow against those finally responsible for everything, international Jewry, and its helpers. I have also made it plain that, if the nations of Europe are again to be regarded as mere shares to be bought and sold by those international Conspirators in money and finance, then that race, Jewry, which is the real criminal of this murderous struggle, will be saddled with the responsibility." Adolf Hitler's Last Political Testament—April 29, 1945.

ADOLF HITLER, THE GEORGE WASHINGTON OF EUROPE

James H. Madole

In May, 1945 the Jewish vultures plunged low over the prostrate ruins of Nazi Germany as hordes of Jewish bureaucrats from Washington fought for the cultural and military spoils of Central Europe. Beautiful cultural centers like Berlin, Cologne and Dresden had been reduced to smoking ash heaps, their civilian population converted into screaming human torches as a result of the phosphorus bombs dropped from the bombing squadrons of Jewry's American errand boys in Europe. Our Twentieth Century liberal democrats and apostles of brotherly love laughed when thousands of lovely German and Austrian girls were dragged from their mother's arms by lustful Red savages from the steppes of Asia and by panting Senegalese Negroes, hired as mercenaries by our French Allies. Captured German soldiers were used for homosexual purposes by these same Senegalese savages during the North African campaign. A wave of suicides syphilis and illegitimate mulatto children swept Central Europe while the Jewish Occupational Officers led by Eisenhower gloated with the report of each new outrage.

In a final burst of savagery and hatred the Jews manipulated the legalized torture and murder of Germany's top military, political and economic leadership at the infamous Nuremberg Trials. This trumped up infamy will live in history as a black smirch on the records of American justice. Despite the inhuman hardships and cruelties inflicted upon them, the German people remained loyal to the memory of their heroic Chancellor, Adolf Hitler. Only a few cowards and traitors joined hands with Jewry's political puppet, Konrad Adenauer.

We have on record the last words of seven German soldiers hung at Landsberg Prison by the Jewish Occupational Authorities. They were guilty of two great crimes, love of country and racial pride. The young hero of the American Revolution, Nathan Hale, when captured by the British was offered his life in exchange for vital military information. His immortal reply was: "I regret that I have but one life to give for my country." Compare this statement with the final words of German soldier Werner Braune spoken at the foot of the gallows.

"Germans! Obedience and faithfulness to my supreme chief of state brought me under the gallows. I cannot regret my obedience. In place of being shot at the front by comrades, I deem it to be more honest to be killed at the gallows by the hands of the enemy. My love was devoted to my people. My struggle was for truth and justice. My last idea is Germany. My last greeting is for my brave wife, my children, my old parents, my beloved brother and all my relations and friends. My last prayer is: God, forgive my murderers."

Despite the horrors of rape, famine and legalized murder the German people dug out from the ruins and commenced the hard and arduous task of reconstruction. The militant Fascist spirit awaited only the exit of Allied occupational forces before taking the reins of power from the feeble puppets of Western Democracy known as Konrad Adenauer in Germany and Alcide de Gasperi in Italy. To understand the revival of European Fascism in post-war Europe requires a basic understanding of the beauty and glory essentially inherent in Fascist philosophy as compared to the decadent democracy of Western Europe which serves as a media for the economic and political exploitation of the Gentile masses by the Jewish Race.

The two political titans of Twentieth Century Fascism were Benito Mussolini and Adolf Hitler. These two men created a political and economic philosophy which swept the mental shackles of Jewish Bolshevism from the minds of untold millions of European workers, intellectuals and shopkeepers. These two men created order out of chaos and prevented the final extinction of Western Civilization at the hands of a barbarian Asiatic horde led by the Jewish Commissars of the Kremlin. When his liberal critics referred to him as "a ruthless totalitarian dictator," Mussolini replied as follows:

"In what consists the Liberalism which today inspires all the enemies of Fascism? Does Liberalism stand for universal suffrage and such conceptions? Does it mean keeping Parliament permanently sitting so that it may continue to present the ignoble spectacle which has evoked general disgust? Does it, in the name of Liberty, allow the minority to destroy the freedom of the majority? Does it mean making way for those who declare their hostility to the State and who are working actively to destroy it? Is this Liberalism? Well, if this be Liberalism, it is a theory and practice of surrender and ruin. Liberty is not an end, it is a means. As a means it needs to be controlled and dominated. Here we come to the question of force!"

"I beg my friends the Liberals to tell me if ever in all history there was a Government which was based exclusively upon the consent of the people and which was ready to dispense altogether with the use of force. There has never been and never will be such a Government. The consent of the people is as mutable as the sands of the seashore. The consent of the people is never permanent. There never was a Government that made all the governed happy. And granted this fact, however far-seeing the Government may be, there must always be malcontents, how shall you prevent their feelings from growing and from becoming a danger to the State? You must have recourse to force."

"Now Fascism throws the noxious theories of so-called Liberalism upon the rubbish heap. The truth, manifest to all whose eyes are not blinded by dogmatism, is that men are tired of liberty. They have had an orgy of it. Liberty today is no longer the chaste and severe virgin for whom fought and died the soldiers of World War I. For the youths of today, intrepid, eager, stern, who envisage the dawn of a new era, there are words which exercise a more potent fascination and these words are: Order, Hierarchy, Discipline. . ."

The collapse of the Imperial German Army in 1918 was brought about by the great munitions strike fomented by Communist Jews in control of the well organized German Trade Union Movement. The most prominent of these Jewish leaders were Rosa Luxemburg and Kurt Eisner. These Jewish labor leaders, assisted by a host of "liberal" Jewish journalists and professional Red revolutionists, were seeking to create a Soviet Germany to act as a buffer state for Lenin's newly created Soviet Russia which had been established in 1917. The attempted Red Revolution in Germany failed due to the heroic efforts of Adolf Hitler and the National Socialist Party.

In September, 1928, Adolf Hitler spoke to his party leaders in Munich. The problems confronting Germany in 1928 were similar to the problems facing America in 1953. In order to save Germany from financial and moral collapse, Hitler postulated the following program:

"In the first place our people must be delivered from the hopeless confusion of international convictions and educated consciously and systematically to fanatical Nationalism . . . Second, in so far as we educate the people to fight against the delirium of democracy and bring it again to the recognition of the necessity of authority and leadership, we tear it away from the nonsense of parliamentarianism. Third, insofar as we deliver the people from the atmosphere of pitiable belief in possibilities which lie outside the bounds of one's own strength—such as the belief in reconciliation, understanding, world peace, the League Of Nations, and international solidarity—we destroy these ideas. There is only one right in the world and that right is one's own strength."

Thus Hitler explained to his people the futility of seeking international cooperation with those nations which were bent on exploiting a defeated and occupied Reich. How could there be reconciliation and friendship with a French government whose troops occupied the key German industrial areas of the Saar Basin and Rhineland? Could there be international solidarity with an England who had jealously stripped Germany of her African colonies and overseas trade? Only strong nations can afford to bargain in the great game of power politics. Hence Hitler's primary goal was the creation of a strong, independent, self confident Germany.

The racial philosophy of the Nazi Movement was completely at variance with the doctrines of liberal democracy, which had emerged from the Red ghettos of Eastern Europe and the Masonic Lodges of France at the time of the bloody French Revolution. Liberal democracy was based on the mythical claims of racial, individual and economic equality laid down by such Jewish intellectuals as Adam Weishaupt, founder of the semi-mystical Illuminati Society and spiritual mentor of the French Revolution and Karl Marx, the author of the Red Bible, "Das Kapital", and founder of World Communism. This democratic doctrine of universal equality was used by its spiritual founders, the Jewish Race, to break down the racial and national pride of the culturally dominant Aryan Race. The Jew, like the Biblical serpent tempting Eve in the Garden Of Eden, seeks to lure the Aryan Race into polluting its pure blood and creative ingenuity by mixing sexually with Zulu Hottentots and Asiatic ancestor worshippers. Hitler spoke as follows concerning the National Socialist conception of race:

"National Socialism takes as the starting point of its views and its decisions neither the individual nor humanity. It puts consciously into the central point of its whole thinking the Race. This Race is for us a blood-conditioned entity in which we see the God-willed building stone of human society. The individual is transitory, the Race is permanent. If the Liberal viewpoint in its deification of the single individual must lead to the destruction of the racial community, National Socialism, on the other hand, desires to safeguard the Race, if necessary even at the expense of the individual. It is essential that the individual should slowly come to realize that his own ego is unimportant when compared with the existence of the whole people . . . Above all we must realize that the freedom of the mind and will of a whole nation are to be valued more highly than the individual's freedom of mind and will."

The National Socialist Party took power in 1933 and inaugurated the most rapid economic recovery program in European history. Vast public housing and road building projects were undertaken successfully. American soldiers returning from occupied Germany have remarked about the high standard of living and cleanliness prevalent in German towns and cities under the Hitler regime. How was it possible for the Nazi Party to raise Germany from the depths of financial ruin to the heights of economic prosperity in three short years? This problem was solved by substituting the productive capacity of the German worker for the Capitalist inspired Gold Standard. Hitler explained it to the German workers of Berlin on December 10, 1940, as follows:

"The German capacity for work is our gold and our capital, and with this gold I can compete successfully with any power in the world . . . My whole economic system has been built upon the conception of work. We have solved our problems while, amazingly enough, the capitalist countries and their currencies have suffered bankruptcy. Sterling can find no market today . . . But our Reichsmark, which is backed by no gold, has remained stable. Why? It has no gold cover, it is backed by you and your work . . . German currency, with no gold coverage, is worth more today than gold itself. It signifies unceasing production."

"Work alone can create new work; money cannot create work. Work alone creates values, values with which to reward those who work. The work of one man makes it possible for another to live and continue to work. And when we have mobilized the working capacity of our people to its utmost, each individual worker will receive more and more of the world's goods."

The success of the Nazi regime in substituting a goods standard for the gold standard threatened the security of international finance through-out the civilized world. The golden shackles, forged originally by the Jewish Rothschild financial empire, which had held the world in bondage for generations were seriously weakened. This fact combined with Hitler's world wide exposure of the Jewish Race as the motivating financial and intellectual force behind World Communism spelled the final doom of Nazi Germany. The press radio and cinema of every nation in Europe and the Americas were geared to an unceasing campaign of vilification and hatred against Nazi Germany. All German goods and shipping was boycotted by order of the Jewish millionaire, Samuel Untermyer, president of the World Jewish Economic Federation. Although the World Almanac attests to the fact that fewer than 600,000 Jews ever lived in Germany, the Jews persisted in their monstrous lie that Nazi Germany had cremated six million of their co-racials. This lie was used as a basis for the most fiendish persecution of the German people. That Hitler and his regime were loved and honored by the German people is proven by the fact that it took the combined manpower and resources of the entire world five long years to defeat sixty million Germans!

Hitler's last words to his people before committing suicide were:

"After six years of war, which in spite of all setbacks will go down in history as the most glorious and valiant demonstration of a nation's life purpose, I cannot forsake the city which is the capital of the Reich . . . I have decided, therefore, to remain in Berlin and there of my own free will to choose death at the moment when I believe the position of Fuehrer and Chancellor can no longer be held."

"I die with a happy heart aware of the immeasurable deeds of our soldiers at the front. From the sacrifice of our soldiers and from my own unity with them unto death will spring up in the history of Germany the seed of a radiant renaissance of the National Socialist movement and thus of the realization of a true community of nations."

Although Adolf Hitler is dead, his philosophy lives again in the growing strength of Fascist forces in America, Europe and the Middle East. What Hitler accomplished in Europe, the National Renaissance Party shall yet accomplish in America.

THE SYMBOL OF JEWISH CONQUEST

THE STAR OF ZION

Made of two interlaced triangles, also called the "Seal of David" is the racial, national and religious emblem of international Jewry. It can be seen on all synagogues, in all Jewish civil organizations, on the Jewish flag. It is the only standard flown by Jews through-out the world. The Star of Zion is an official emblem of all Kabbalistic organizations. It is an official symbol of Freemasonry. It appears as an emblem for Communist and Godless organizations.. It has been drawn in the heading of the Versailles Treaty. It is an official emblem of two republics and three districts of the U.S.S.R.. It has been drawn on French, Dutch and other postage stamps. It figures as an official emblem in the Great Seal of the United States; also on new American dollar bills...

You will find this Jew symbol on the reverse of Roosevelt (Rosenfeld) medals distributed by thousands of his fellow Jews. There is also the five-pointed star called the "Seal of Solomon," also this same emblem is used by kabbalists, freemasonry and the Godless Communists, you will find it also on the coat of arms of the U.S.S.R., in the Red Army and in many countries where JEWS facilitated its imposition..

COMMUNISM - a Jewish world plot!

HERBERT LEHMAN

Some of the Jewish conspirators

Communism is the instrument of the Jewish plot to create a JEWISH DICTATORSHIP all over the world; a plot backed by military and economic force to put all wealth and property into Jewish hands.

The American Hebrew, leading Jewish newspaper in the U.S.A., wrote, September 10, 1943:

"The Bolshevik revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in no excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction and by Jewish planning, shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality all over the world."

"Jewry is the father of Marxist-Communism," said the Jewish journal Le droit de vivre, published in Paris, May 12, 1933.

Kol Nidre—All vows

The "Kol Nidre" is a Jewish prayer named from its opening words, "All vows". It is based on the declaration of the Talmud: "He who wishes that his vows and oaths shall have no value, stands up at the beginning of the year and says: 'All vows which I shall make during the year shall be of no value!'"

It would be pleasant to be able to declare that this is merely one of the curiosities of the darkness which covers the Talmud, but the fact is that "Kol Nidre" is not only an ancient curiosity: it is also a modern practice. In the volume of revised "Festival Prayers", published in 1919 by the Hebrew Publishing Company, New York, the prayer appears in its fullness:

"All vows, obligations, oaths or anathemas, pledges of all names, which we have vowed, sworn, devoted, or bound ourselves to, from this day of atonement, until the next day of atonement (whose arrival we hope for in happiness) we repent, beforehand, of them all. They shall all be deemed absolved, forgiven, annulled, void and made of no effect; they shall not be binding, nor have any power; the vows shall not be reckoned vows, the obligations shall not be obligatory, nor the oaths considered as oaths."

CAN YOU NOW TRUST A JEW?

In the book Frank and the Frankists (Cracow 1895) the Jewish lawyer Alexander Kraushaar wrote: "We must use fine words and deceitful talk till all has come into our hands."

"God's chosen people"

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY N.Y.C.

PLEASE READ THIS PAMPHLET CAREFULLY!

Ever since the time of Christ, the Jews have claimed to be God's own people, i.e. the preferred people of our God, the good Father. They have in this way throughout centuries acquired an immense and at the same time fatal influence on other peoples. In the entire Christendom the idea is prevailing that the Jews are the foremost of all other peoples. Nothing, therefore, is more important to the Jews than that the Christians be kept convinced of the myth that the Jews are God's own people, thus enabling them to gain their long-wished-for position as rulers of the world.

Better, perhaps, than other peoples, the Jews have understood the immense influence of the myth on people's thinking when acting during centuries. Their myth about "God's chosen people" we meet in several places of the Old Testament, a document which is Jewish and not Christian. The slightest thought will tell you this, because Christianity derives its name from Christ, our Saviour, and not from Moses or any other Old Testament personality. The most fatal mistake a Christian can make is to place on par the Jews' Old Testament, full as it is with descriptions of cruelty and debauchery, with our Lord's New Testament in which the sublime SERMON ON THE MOUNT is the highest of Christian religious teaching. Christ was crucified because He told the Jews the uncontested truth: "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar, and the father of it." (The Gospel of St. John, 8:44.) Any words from Jesus regarding the Jews as "God's chosen people" are not known.

We shall now take a look at Abraham's so called pact with God as related in the Genesis. When Abraham came to Kanaan the people there worshipped El-Elion, the spirit of light and truth, and feared El-Shaddai, the evil spirit of lies, darkness, and destruction. But it was just with this El-Shaddai Abraham made his pact! Martin Luther has incorrectly translated this passage. The original text, translated, reads as follows: "Then Yahwe appeared to him saying: — I am El-Shaddai and will make a pact with thee..."

Thus, it is this El-Shaddai-Yahwe, the evil spirit, also named Satan, who is the god of the Jews, and whose people they are.

Finally, we shall let two Jews of our time speak.

... But no less than Bolshevik Ecstasy and Financial Tyranny can National Bigotry (if I may call it so) be finally followed back to a Jewish source, — are they not the inventors of the Chosen Race Myth?... You have noticed with alarm that the Jewish elements provide the driving forces for both Communism and Capitalism, for the material as well as the spiritual ruin of this world... I confess it to you, openly and sincerely, we who have posed as the saviours of the world, we who have even boasted of having given it "the" Saviour, we are today nothing else but the world's seducers, its destroyers, its incendiaries, its executioners. We who have promised to lead you to a new Heaven, we have finally succeeded in landing you into a new Hell." This wrote the Jew Dr. Oscar Levy in a letter to Captain Pitt Rivers, who gave publicity to it in the preface of his book "The World Significance of the Russian Revolution", Oxford, 1920.

"The hour when our people gave their everlasting promise of faith to Yahwe was the birth-hour of the greatest lie that history of the world ever knew to make mention of, i.e. the lie about our being God's own people." This said by the Jew Ben Chaim in his pamphlet "Juda erwache! Proklamation an das jüdische Volk", Zürich, 1938.

You who read this do try to understand the earnest and worldcomprising problem of "God's chosen people". When this myth no longer receives support by us Christians the road is found that leads to liberation from the fatal influence of the Jews the world over.

Below only two quotations from the Old Testament.

"Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he had wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt. Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not: but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass." (II Sam. 15:2,3.)

Can you imagine our God, the dear Father, to have given this cruel order? Is it Christianity? No!

"And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbath and fought against it and took it. And he took their king's crown from off his head, the weight whereof was a talent of gold with the precious stones; and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance. And he brought forth the people, that were therein and put them under saws, and under barrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brickkiln and thus did he unto all cities of the children of Ammon." (II Sam. 12: 29—31.)

(L) NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY - INTERNAL SECURITY - X (Bureau File 62-83296) -- The National Renaissance Party was founded in 1948 by James H. Madole of Beacon, New York, and has been described by reliable sources as a neo-Nazi, anti-Semitic and Nationalist organization. The aims and purposes of the National Renaissance Party as set forth in its official organ, "National Renaissance Bulletin," are "devoted to a restoration of the American Republic, the preservation of American sovereignty and the establishment of an American regime based on the principles of racial nationalism and social justice."

The Bureau is in receipt of information indicating that as a result of the recent United States Supreme Court decision banning segregation in schools a member of the National Renaissance Party was instructed to incite riots by white students in the South. This member was also instructed to contact the Columbians to determine whether firearms are available. It is noted that the Columbians, a terrorist-type organization, is now defunct and has been cited by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In view of the possibility the National Renaissance Party may expand its activities, particularly in the South by affiliation with Ku Klux Klan-type organizations, all offices should be alert for any information indicating this organization is involved in racial disturbances. The New York Office is Office of Origin in the captioned matter.

DETAILS:

The National Renaissance Party will hereinafter be referred to in this report as the NRP.

A. GENERAL ACTIVITIES OF THE NRP

[] of known reliability, advised in May, 1954 that the NRP, which formerly had its national headquarters at the home of JAMES MADOLE in Beacon, New York, moved its headquarters to 10 West 90th Street, New York City when MADOLE and his mother moved to this address from Beacon. (X)(U)

b2

b7D

The informant stated that MADOLE did not desire to have the Party correspondence sent to this address and attempted to obtain a Post Office box at 208 East 86th Street, New York City, which is a stationery store licensed to receive mail for individuals. The informant stated that MADOLE was refused a Post Office box by the owners of the Kerekes Book Store, who stated that inasmuch as this was a political organization, he could not be allowed to use one of their Post Office boxes. The informant stated that, therefore, MADOLE had been compelled to use his home address as the Party's new mailing address. (X)(U)

[] also stated that a great deal of the Party literature contains the address of []

b2

[] and that a great volume of the Party's correspondence is sent to this address. (X)(U)

b7C

b7D

[] further stated that although the Party literature continues to carry MADOLE's name as the National Leader and he is referred to as such by members of the Party, that in fact [] and FREDERICK WEISS completely dominate him and control the activities of the Party. (X)(U)

b2

b7C

b7D

[] stated that a great deal of the mail and contributions which [] receives at his apartment are never seen by MADOLE. He also stated that WEISS, by (X)(U)

b2

b7C

b7D

NY 105-6112

means of controlling his contributions to MADOLE and the Party publications, is able to control MADOLE's activities. (S)(U)

[] stated that in recent months the mailing of anti-Semitic literature by the Party has been greatly increased and that this has been the principal function of the Party during the past few months. He also stated members of the Party, particularly [] and [] have been sending a considerable amount of personal letters to individuals requesting contributions. (S)(U)

b2
b7C
b7D

[] stated that Party meetings in the last few months have been confined to small groups held at apartments of the members. He stated that a considerable number of these meetings have been held on Thursday nights at the apartment of [] at which approximately 10 to 12 people attended. He added that since MADOLE has obtained an apartment in May, 1954 in New York City that these indoor meetings have been held at his apartment and extensive plans are being made by MADOLE for the holding of the outdoor street corner meetings this summer in Brooklyn, Queens and Manhattan. (S)(U)

b2
b7C
b7D

[] said that MADOLE has spent considerable time attempting to locate a suitable meeting hall for the Party in Manhattan and Queens but due to the notoriety received by the NRP, he has been unable to find anyone who would rent him a suitable meeting hall. (S)(U)

b2
b7D

[] advised in May, 1954 that WEISS has been intending to send [] on a tour of Southeast United States on behalf of the NRP. It is WEISS' intention to utilize [] for personal contacts with many persons who are known to be sympathetic with national socialism in an effort to secure additional members for the NRP as well as financial support. The informant said that WEISS would supply some of these names to [] all of whom are known to have fostered anti-Semitism in the past. (S)(U)

b2
b7C
b7D

[] also indicated WEISS had expressed the desire to send [] to Europe to visit Germany, Spain (S)(U)

b2
b7C
b7D

NY 105-6112

Sweden and possibly the Middle East for the similar purpose of contacting persons sympathetic to national socialism. The informant stated that WEISS indicated he would be willing to spend $1,000 for this trip, which it is contemplated would take place after [redacted] returns from his United States tour. (S)(u) b7C b7D

[redacted] stated that the principal finances for the Party's activities appear to be furnished by WEISS, although the Party does receive small contributions from other individuals. He stated that WEISS pays for all the publishing costs of NRP literature and in addition gives a considerable amount of money to MADOLE and [redacted] for the work that they do for the Party as well as for their personal living expenses. He stated that WEISS also pays the rent on MADOLE's apartment in New York, inasmuch as Party meeting are being held there. (S)(u) b2 b7C b7D

[redacted] added that WEISS also paid a considerable amount of the purchase price for a motorcycle which [redacted] purchased in May, 1954 in contemplation of his United States tour. (S)(u) b2 b7C b7D

[redacted] further indicated that [redacted] was furnishing money to [redacted] for his work in the Party and for information which [redacted] supplied him concerning activities of the Party. (S)(u) b2 b7C b7D

[redacted] of unknown reliability but who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 26, 1954 that [redacted] was furnishing money to [redacted] for reports which he submitted and literature which he furnished concerning the activities of the NRP and other nationalist groups in the United States. [redacted] added that [redacted] had given [redacted] $60 for his expenses in connection with the contemplated trip of [redacted] through-out the United States. b2 b7C b7D

[redacted] indicated that the NRP is a nationalist group backed by many former German SS officers. He stated that b2 b7D

it is an organization for "white Aryans" and its basic objectives are:

1. The obtaining of political power in the United States;
2. Eliminating the traditional political parties;
3. Deportation of Jews, Negroes and Puerto Ricans.

He added that these objectives are to be obtained by any means available.

[] further stated that the financial backer and driving force behind the NRP is FREDERICK WEISS, who is a German alien and remains under cover for fear of possible deportation. [] stated that although the objective of the NRP is to fight Communism, it has been infiltrated by the Communist Party in the person of [] who is a Communist Party sympathizer and has attended Communist Party schools. b2 b7C b7D

[] added that the paid functionaries of the NRP are MADOLE and [] b2 b7C

B. INDIVIDUALS CONNECTED WITH THE NRP b7D

1. Leaders

The following are the known individuals who have been reported by confidential informants to direct the NRP:

a. []

b7C

b7D

[] stated during May, 1954 that [] has continued his activities in the NRP. He stated that [] appears to be in complete charge of all activities of the NRP and held meetings of the NRP at his apartment until (X)(U) b2 b7C b7D

NY 105-6112

May, 1954. The informant stated that [] is still the Organizer of all the work which is necessary for the preparation and distribution of the anti-Semitic literature of the NRP. He stated that FREDERICK WEISS appears to have complete trust in [] and has given him considerable money for his personal needs as well as the expenses of the Party. (S)(U) b7C b7D

[] advised in May, 1954 that [] is one of the important leaders of the NRP, although he refers to himself as only a minor official in the Party in charge of overseas mail. The informant stated that [] takes a very important part in all meetings and usually does most of the talking at these meetings. b2 b7C b7D

This informant also indicated that [] had recently obtained a German pistol, which is converted into an air pistol and fires pellets. He stated that [] claims he obtained this weapon for his protection during his contemplated trip. b7C b7D

[] of unknown reliability, advised in June, 1954 that [] 2 lectures at the Jefferson School of Social Science at which [] was also present. b2 b7C b7D

He stated that [] was not a teacher at this School but had discussed the ROSENBERG case with small groups at the School because it was the topic of the day. He stated he did not recall any specific comments that [] made concerning the ROSENBERG trial but did recall that the subject was continually talking about the evils of the Capitalistic System. b7C b7D

[] said that he understood that [] now is a member of the NRP and believes he might be acting as a [] in an attempt to break up this Nazi Party. He said that he believed that [] was working in this connection with a [] who is a []. This informant said that he did not believe [] was a Nazi but thought b2 b7C b7D

b7C it was quite possible that he was a "nut" and described b7D [redacted] as a prolific liar.

The Jefferson School of Social Science has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

[redacted] of unknown reliability but who is acquainted with [redacted] advised on June 7, 1954 that [redacted] several meetings of the NRP. at which [redacted] was present. He stated that [redacted] apartment on several occasions and believes that [redacted] now has assumed complete control of the NRP and is directing its activity through the counsel and financial aid of FREDERICK WEISS.

b2

b7C

b7D

b2 This informant stated that when he first met b7C [redacted] in May, 1953, [redacted] told him that he belonged to b7D the Communist Party for 5 years but now was completely devoted to the cause of national socialism and was a member of the NRP. [redacted] added that there has been considerable talk among members of the NRP regarding [redacted] prior membership in the Communist Party but that no one appeared to have any definite information outside of what [redacted] himself had told them.

b2 [redacted] of unknown reliability but who was acquainted b7C with [redacted] stated on June 3, 1954 that he was a [redacted] b7D [redacted] and has [redacted] He said he believed that [redacted] was a member of a group of the Communist Party which was ousted from the Party over the Browderism issue.

b2 [redacted] stated that he believes [redacted] is paid by b7C [redacted] for reports which he makes to [redacted]
b7D concerning the NRP and he believes that a great deal of the literature distributed by the NRP is printed with the aid of [redacted]

[redacted]

NY 105-6112

b7C

[redacted] stated in April, 1954 that the members of the NRP were aware of this article and had discounted its statements regarding [redacted] Communist Party background because they stated, it was an attempt by [redacted] to smear [redacted] (S) L.O.P.

b2

b7C

b7D

This informant added that most members of the NRP are aware of the fact that [redacted] was active in some manner for the Communist Party before he joined the NRP but now believed he is completely dedicated to national socialism. (S) (U)

b7C

b7D

[redacted] further stated that he believes that the Communist-trained associates referred to in this article are [redacted] and [redacted] who entered the NRP at the same time as [redacted] and whom he believes have had some background in the Communist Party. (S) (U)

b2

b7C

b7D

[redacted] said that the [redacted] [redacted] is probably [redacted] whom [redacted] admitted as having been formerly associated with at the Jefferson School. The "Brotherhood Advocate", volume 1, number 3, a pamphlet [redacted]

[redacted] contained an interview which [redacted] had with JAMES MADOLE and [redacted] concerning the NRP.

b7C

During this interview, MADOLE stated that the NRP has points similar to the Nazi Party but it has some points never included in the Nazi program and some that are radically different. He said that the NRP is for the unity of all Aryan peoples and that if the NRP grows to a point where it has national influence, it would encourage the Asiatics and the Africans to leave America.

Concerning the strength of the NRP, MADOLE stated that they have 6,000 members in New York City, of which 700 were in the Uniform Corps which included girls. MADOLE stated that the Party movement is growing all over the world and is accepted in such widely divergent places as

Switzerland, England, Ireland, Sweden, Germany, Spain, Argentina and New Zealand. MADOLE stated that the prime objective of the Party at the present was to add members to the organization which they did by holding indoor and outdoor meetings and spreading literature.

He said that as soon as "We control the country, we will do away with the two Party system." MADOLE explained that anti-Semitism was an essential part of the Party's ideology because they realized that behind Communism stands the intellectual and financial resources of the Jewish race.

The "New York Post" dated April 22, 1954, in an editorial by BARRY GRAY, made reference to JAMES H. MADOLE and his efforts to distribute anti-Semitic literature on behalf of the NRP. This article stated that the NRP holds meetings in Brooklyn and Manhattan regularly, where they wear Nazi-type uniforms and "heil" and give reverence to the swastika.

c. FREDERICK C. F. WEISS,
Mount Hope Road,
Middletown, New York

The "Reporter" magazine, dated April 13, 1954, contained an article entitled, "Germany-Where Fascism and Communism Meet" by EDMUND TAYLOR.

This article identified FREDERICK CHARLES F. WEISS as a German-born professional conspirator residing in the United States, who writes vicious anti-Semitic articles for the NRP. This article stated that WEISS carries on an intense correspondence with many prominent Nazi leaders and has quite a few Soviet and Communist contacts throughout Europe.

See 105-6112
The article also stated that WEISS is reliably reported to have his own Communist contacts in the United States although he is at some times an ardent admirer of Senator MC CARTHY and works with some of the Senator's

The NCASP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

[redacted] stated at that time [redacted] volunteered the information to him that he had [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] stated that he had asked [redacted] either

b7C

at that time or at a subsequent meeting whether he, [redacted] was a member of the Communist Party and [redacted] had replied in the negative. [redacted] stated that [redacted] has been supplying him with various neo-Nazi literature either published by the NRP or which is received at the NRP Headquarters in New York City. [redacted] advised that [redacted] brings these documents to his office and that [redacted] pays him a nominal amount of money for these documents.

[redacted] stated that on several occasions, [redacted] has sent the documents down to his office with [redacted] who is also a member of the NRP, or [redacted] who is [redacted] but whom [redacted] does not believe is a member of the NRP. [redacted] advised that he also had a young man named [redacted] come in to his office and [redacted] after he had heard MADOLE condemning [redacted] and his anti-Nazi League at a street corner meeting.

[redacted] stated that he utilized [redacted] for information on the NRP and also to check on the accuracy of [redacted] reports. [redacted] said that [redacted] who is a [redacted] quit the NRP some time ago since he was unable to rationalize his undercover activities with his beliefs.

[redacted] also stated that [redacted] approached him about [redacted] described [redacted] as being overzealous and emotionally unstable and that [redacted] had decided to investigate the NRP himself. He said that [redacted] became so emotionally worked up over various neo-Nazi publications, that he himself started to print rebuttal pamphlets and soon became quite well known in neo-Nazi circles.

Despite this activity, he was able to have MADOLE accept him as a member of the NRP but [redacted] considers his effectiveness as completely lost.

NY 105-6112

C. ACTION TAKEN TO IMPLEMENT THE PROGRAM
OF THE NRP

1. Meetings

b2 [] stated that the NRP has held meetings b7C regularly on Thursday nights at the apartment of [] or MADOLE for the past several months. He said that b7D many efforts have been made to obtain a regular meeting place but that MADOLE has been unsuccessful in finding a suitable hall. He said that MADOLE has been active in attempting to obtain police permission to hold outdoor street meetings in the Yorkville Section of New York City but has been unable to secure a permit for the particular corner which he desired. He said that MADOLE is continuing his efforts to attempt to find places for outdoor meetings in Manhattan, Brooklyn and Queens. (S)(u)

b2 [] stated that the NRP did hold one indoor b7D meeting in the past few months on May 2, 1954 at Jaegers
Restaurant, 85th Street and Lexington Avenue, New York City. He said that this meeting was held under the fictitious name, "Patriots for MC CARTHY", but that this was merely a ruse used by the NRP to obtain the meeting hall inasmuch as they could not obtain one under their own name. The informant said that leaders of the NRP believed that it would be necessary in the future to use a front with a political appeal in order to raise funds and obtain meeting halls. (S)(u)

The informant said this meeting on May 2, 1954 (S)(u)

NY 105-6112

was attended by about 50 people and that a collection of $30 was taken. He also stated that the names of the people in attendance were taken and that it was stated that they would be advised of future meetings. (X)(u) b2 [] stated on June 11, 1954 that the NRP was making plans to hold its first outdoor meeting some time during June and was expected to be held in Brooklyn. b7D He further stated that other plans were being made to hold Party meetings in Manhattan, Brooklyn and Queens.

2. Publications

b2 [] stated that the "National Renaissance b7D Bulletin" was being published on an irregular basis and was being published by various printers. He stated that WEISS financed these printings and he, along with MADOLE, usually wrote all the material that was in them. He said that the NRP had been unable to find a printer who would handle their literature on a regular basis and, therefore, they got their work done at various places in Middletown, New York and in New York City. (X)(u)

b7C This informant stated that WEISS had purchased a mimeographing machine which was in the apartment of b7D [] and that a considerable amount of Party literature was produced on this machine. (X)(u)

He stated that the "National Renaissance Bulletin" as well as all other literature published and distributed by the NRP contained the Party line of extreme nationalism and anti-Semitism. This informant furnished the following publications during the period of this report:

December 1953 "National Renaissance Bulletin" with an article entitled, "Brotherhood" by FREDERICK WEISS and an article entitled, "EISENHOWER Has Betrayed The American People" by JAMES MADOLE;

NY 105-6112

The January-February, 1954 issue of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" containing articles by FRANK BRITTON, JAMES MADOLE and J. E. VON MARQUARDT; 113 120.

March-April, 1954 "National Renaissance Bulletin" with articles by JAMES H. MADOLE and ROBERT B. PATTERSON; No Lic.

Copies of anti-Semitic pamphlets entitled, "The War Criminals" and "God's Chosen People" which are written by EINAR ABERG of Norrviken, Sweden which, [] states, were shipped to the United States from Sweden and distributed with the stamp of the NRP throughout Germany and the United States. (S)(u)

Articles signed, "X.Y.Z.", which is the pseudonym of FREDERICK WEISS entitled, "OSWALD SPENGLER, The American-Jewish Committee and Russia" and "MAX PLANCK And The Future of Western Civilization" and "Should The Prussian Spirit Die?" which, [] states, were mailed to numerous persons throughout the United States. (S)(u)

[] stated that these articles contained anti-Semitic material as well as anti-United States State Department policies regarding Germany.

[] stated that the "American Hebrew" dated April 2, 1954, ran an exclusive article on page 3 by JAMES SHELDON entitled, "Who Threw The Anti-Semitic Pamphlets From Windows In Times Square?". This article indicated that the anti-Semitic material thrown from the Empire State Building on March 26, 1954 was rubber stamped by the NRP and that []

[] was in charge of literature distribution in New York.

[] stated that a pamphlet entitled, "Battle Cry",

NY 105-6112

b7C described as an official publication of the "Patriots for b7D MC CARTHY", stated the purpose of this organization was to support principles and activities of the nations foremost crusader against the evils of Communism. The front page of this pamphlet set forth a quotation by J. EDGAR HOOVER which stated in part that the "pseudo-liberal can be more destructive than the known Communist because of the esteem which his cloak of responsibility invites." This pamphlet requested subscriptions to be sent to the organization

[redacted] stated in March, 1954 that WEISS had secured publication of several thousand copies of a "National Renaissance Bulletin" as well as other pamphlets dealing with anti-Semitism at the Trumbull Printing Company, Middletown, New York. He stated that JAMES MADOLE had accompanied WEISS on one occasion when he ordered these printings and that several hundred of these sheets were sent to [redacted] New York City at the request of WEISS, who WEISS stated, was his [redacted] who forwarded these propaganda sheets to Germany and Asia.

b2 [redacted] of known reliability, advised on February 5, 1954 that the NRP has mailed large quantities of Nazi-type literature recently and that this organization also receives large amounts of similar type literature in cartons from Sweden. He stated that this material is mailed to [redacted] b7C [redacted] and that this same individual b7D mails great bundles of this literature under the name of the NRP.

b2 [redacted] of known reliability, advised on March 25, 1954 that [redacted] at [redacted] had received orders from FREDERICK WEISS on numerous occasions to mimeograph anti-Semitic material. She said that WEISS usually ordered about 500 copies of these articles and that on several occasions he was accompanied by individuals fitting the descriptions of MADOLE and [redacted] and that they had preaddressed envelopes in their possession with which to mail the mimeographed sheets.

The following is set out to indicate the attempts made by the NRP to solicit funds and new members:

[redacted]
